WHAT I'LL COVER

- Basic information about institution and practices
- Basics of FRBR in Primo
- FRBR & serials
- Problems
- Alterations to our workflow & records
- Future improvements

SIZE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

- 27,298 FTE students
- 4.8 million volumes
- 57,382 current serials
- 168,425 serial titles in catalog
- Recon not complete for less than 5000 serials
- Full federal depository

SOFTWARE

- ILS: Aleph - InfoHawk
- Link Resolver: SFX - InfoLink
- Marc record service: MARCit
- Next generation catalog: Primo - SmartSearch

SHARED RECORDS

- We do not have a consortial catalog
- We do not share any records
- Catalog includes records for Law Library and State Historical Society

CATALOGING BEFORE PRIMO

- 33,350 serial titles shelved by main entry
- Recon is a wide mix of manually entered records, and includes latest title and successive records
- Most serials include ISSN (if one is on piece)
- Few serials include OCLC 035
- Single record approach used
- Batchloading only for aggregator databases

PRIMO TIMELINE

- Worked on implementation this summer
- Local soft release in late September
<http://smartsearch.uiowa.edu>
- Full release on Friday, Jan. 11
- Next update will include a few changes to FRBR
- V.2 will come out late winter/early spring and will have significant FRBR improvements

FRBR IN PRIMO

- Two separate functions—De-duplication and FRBRization
- Rules assess similarity between records. Those that meet a threshold for similarity will be merged together.
  - Dedup records are completely merged; individual records cannot be viewed in Primo but do have a link to Aleph catalog
  - FRBR records are merged for display, but also allow viewing of individual titles

DE-DUPLICATION EXAMPLE

SERIALS RULES

- De-duplication slightly different for serials
  - 022 vs. 020
  - More flexibility regarding dates
  - Place of publication vs. Publisher and Pagination
- Locally added 776 x to comparison with 022 a – this should increase likelihood of different formats de-duplicating
- Locally adding OCLC 035 – this should increase likelihood of FRBRization instead of de-duplication – it will also help with older titles

FRBR & SERIALS

- Fairly unusual in our catalog at this time
- Latest title and successive title records should FRBRize
  - Later title in successive should match with latest title record.
  - Earlier title in successive should not match
- Some title changes will FRBRize

ALTERATIONS TO OUR WORKFLOW

- Major increase in batchloading
  - Packages
  - Consortial agreements
  - Free titles
  - Not loading records for individually purchased titles
- Backlog for serials catalogers based on the quality of the batchloaded record and the priority of the general category

ALTERATIONS TO OUR RECORDS

- No changes due to FRBR in Primo
- Changes made for Primo
  - Should alter notes in some 856s to improve display
  - Removing some unneeded uniform titles
- Changes made for reasons other than Primo
  - Recataloging from latest title to successive title (project has predated primo)
  - Adding OCLC 035 to serials (unconnected to Primo but with the rules change it will have an impact)
  - Continue to make sure 776 x is correct
  - Making items for titles that lack them

FUTURE IMPROVEMENTS

- Next update
  - Improving matching of long titles
  - Minor improvement matching on country codes and dates
- V.2 will include major changes to FRBR based on feedback from customers.
- Hopefully it will begin to link related titles

CONCLUSION

- Really great for different formats
- Not fully live locally so it doesn't feel fully tested
- Complex title situations can be confusing
- “FRBR” still does not show serial title relationships
- Good matches rely on good data (good cataloging)
