BOOK PRIZE NOMINATIONS WANTED!

The Society for Medieval Feminist Scholarship announces the 2008 competition for the best first book on feminist scholarship on the Middle Ages. The Prize alternates every other year between a published essay and a first book.

The SMFS Awards Committee solicits nominations for Best First Book in any area of medieval studies. Nominated books should represent the best in feminist scholarship published in the past three years (2005-2007). The prize, which includes an award of $300, will be announced at the SMFS reception at the 2008 International Congress on Medieval Studies in Kalamazoo, MI. Self-nominations are acceptable.

Please send at least two copies (more if available) of nominated books, along with a brief cover letter summarizing each's merits and contributions, by January 1, 2008 to:
