Strategic Area: Student Learning

Goal: Advance innovative practices and environments that transform student learning.

1. Challenge librarians and libraries to engage every student with information literacy skills and in a way that is scalable and sustainable.

- Conference sessions: Using stories and non-traditional reading materials to develop information literacy skills; Re-envisioning the library as the nexus of undergraduate research; Challenges of connecting with distance learners; Library support for service-learning in the arts
 - Developed and promoted bibliography of College Readiness in Information Literacy in Scholarly and Professional Literature: K-16 Collaborative Programs; Needs Assessment: What Do Students Know and/or Need to Know in Order to be Prepared for College-Level Work?
2. Increase the impact of information literacy by forming strategic partnerships with relevant organizations
 - Joint ILA/ACRL/IASL (Iowa Association of School Librarians) College Readiness Committee: work on mapping history of school librarians
 3. Build capacity for librarians to collaborate with faculty and other campus partners in instructional and curricular design and delivery that will integrate information literacy into student learning.
 - Conference session: Faculty outreach and partnerships
 4. Articulate and advocate for the role of librarians in setting, achieving, and measuring institutional student learning outcomes.
 - Our Chapter supported letter writing in support of continued funding for IMLS and literacy efforts in the federal budget.
 5. Investigate and advocate for the inclusion of teaching and learning into library and information science school curricula by collaborating with relevant ALA groups and organizations.

Strategic Area: Research and Scholarly Environment

Goal: Librarians accelerate the transition to a more open and equitable systems of scholarship.

1. Increase the ways ACRL is an advocate and model for open dissemination and evaluation practices.
2. Enhance members' capacity to address issues related to scholarly communication, including but not limited to data management, library publishing, open access, and digital scholarship.
 - Promoted the ACRL Research Data Management workshop hosted at the University of Iowa in collaboration with Iowa State and The University of Northern Iowa, fall 2016.
3. Influence scholarly publishing policies and practices toward a more open system.
 - ILA/ACRL sponsored a fall conference panel discussion on promoting and supporting the use of open educational resources in college and university libraries.

Strategic Area: New Roles and Changing Landscapes

Goal: Academic and research library workforce effectively navigates change in higher education environments.

1. Deepen ACRL's advocacy and support for a full range of information professionals.
 - Several members from our chapter participated in ILA in-person Legislative Day, an annual event for librarians to be briefed by ILA lobbyists and to meet with their State Legislators to talk about their concerns.

2. Equip library workforce at all levels to effectively lead, manage, and embrace change.
3. Expand ACRL's role as a catalyst for transformational change in higher education.

Strategic Area: Enabling Programs and Services
