University of Iowa Libraries Staff Publications

11-12-1999

Information Arcade Collaborations and Innovative Learning Environments

Paul A. Soderdahl
University of Iowa

Information Arcade
Collaborations and Interactive
Learning Environments

Paul A. Soderdahl
The University of Iowa Libraries

Innovations and Collaborations

- Introduction: Brief History
- Innovations/Collaborations/Scaling Up
  - Electronic Classroom
  - Digital Video/Audio
  - Web as Publishing Medium
  - Faculty Partnerships
  - Digital Library
- Questions for Discussion

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Information Arcade®

- Brief history
  - Opened in 1992
  - Initially funded by Carver Charitable Trust
  - "To facilitate the integration of new technologies into teaching, learning, and research"
  - Unique staffing model: graduate assistants as primary public services staff

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Electronic Classroom

- Innovation
  - A fully wired, interactive classroom open to undergraduate courses in all disciplines for classes redesigned to integrate technology
  - First on campus

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Electronic Classroom

- Collaboration
  - David Stern, Philosophy
  - Interactive courseware designed to teach logic (Tarski's World)
  - Changing how students interact with the professor and with each other in a dynamic learning environment

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Electronic Classroom

- Scaling Up
  - > Information Commons classrooms (2), Hardin Library for the Health Sciences
  - > ARTIC (Advanced Real-Time Information Center), Business Library
  - > Discipline-specific classrooms around campus

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Digital Video/Audio

- Innovation
  - Allow any student or faculty member to digitize video and create a movie on a drop-in basis
  - Brand new technology: QuickTime 1.0

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Digital Video/Audio

- Collaboration
  - Brooks Landon, English
  - Literature and Culture of the Twentieth Century
  - > Examining new inventions and innovations around the turn of the (last) century
  - > Early movies, sound recordings, and panoramic scans

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Digital Video/Audio

- Scaling Up
  - > Broadcast quality video editing suite
    - > High-end video capture (Media 100)
    - > Broadcast quality output (DV/SVHS)

  - > Streaming Video on the Web (Real Video)
    - Server available to all of campus

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Web as Publishing Medium

- Innovation
  - > Web space open to all faculty and graduate students for authors to harness and exploit the web as a new communications medium
    - Not personal home pages
    - Not course web sites, assignments, reserves
    - Not traditional electronic serials publishing
    - > Rather, new models of expression that require capabilities of the web for effective communication

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Web as Publishing Medium

- Collaboration
  - > Karla Tonella, Communication Studies
    - Border Crossings
      - To "encourage the browsing reader to consider the areas of their postmodern world where traditional boundaries are being renegotiated and blurred"
  - > Mary Curtis, Women's Intercollegiate Athletics
    - > Gender Equity in Sports
      - Monitoring current state of affairs of gender equity in intercollegiate sport and Title IX compliance

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Web as Publishing Medium

- Scaling Up
  - > Bailiwick Project
  - > Open to all faculty and graduate students
  - > Author's bailiwick
    - Authors have complete editorial freedom
  - > Web space and support
    - Technical support, consultation on design, support for information and research
  - > Institutional support and credibility
    - Not buried deep in some faculty member's home page

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Faculty Partnerships

- Innovation
  - A team of academic faculty, librarians, and information technologists working to redesign a course or curriculum to take advantage of current technologies

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Faculty Partnerships

- Collaboration
  - > Bruce Gronbeck, Communication Studies
  - > Introduction to Research for Graduate Students
  - > Redesign as a modular course in collaboration with reference librarians and Information Arcade staff, heavily based on electronic research

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Faculty Partnerships

- Scaling Up
  - TWIST Project (Teaching With Innovative Style and Technology)
  - Initially funded by Carver Charitable Trust
  - TWISTed Pairs: librarians and faculty working in partnership to redesign courses

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Digital Library

- Innovation
  - > Digitizing selected library collections modeled after large-scale digital library initiatives at Michigan, Virginia, et al.

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Digital Library

- Collaboration
  - > Richard Kolbet, Special Collections Librarian
    - > Tiny Tomes: The Charlotte M. Smith Collection of Miniature Books
  - • Timothy Shipe, Bibliographer
    - > Periodicals from the International Dada Archive

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Digital Library

- Scaling Up
  - > Scholarly Digital Resources Center
    - > Arts & Humanities Digital Resources Center
    - > Center for Electronic Resources in African Studies
    - > Virtual Exhibits
  - • Traveling Culture: Circuit Chautauqua in the Twentieth Century
    - • Library of Congress American Memory Project

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999

Questions for Discussion

1992   1993   1994   1995   1996   1997   1998   1999