

BLESSED YVETTE
FEASTDAY: JANUARY 13

---

Heather Hartel

She dedicated herself for lepers out of them.
She dedicated herself for lepers out of Leau.
She dedicated herself for eleven years and three centuries.
She dedicated herself for eleven years.

She is considered a widow at the thirteenth century.
She was a widow at the youthful age of suitors,
drawn by her uncommon beauty.
In this she was married off by her uncommon beauty,
In this she is considered of a wealthy family of Cornillion.
In this she joined a select number.
In this she is considered a saint.

Five years and Margaret was no dearth of a saint.
Youth was born of her. She was no dearth of them, of them.
