It hit 10,000 and it stuck -- at least for the day.

The history of rise and fall and rise and fall and rise again is in the Bloomberg article about the Dow hitting 10,000.

I tried several combinations of words and settled on "Dow 10,000." It produced more finds than any of the other combinations. The first search found messages with Dow and 10,000 in them back to September -- though most of them were about the news of the day.

It is not off to an impressive start. Perhaps people who do stocks do not do twitter.

I stopped searching November 1, 2009. At that point 2529 messages had been found.
