& St. John. They gave us two Muscatine County bonds, of $1000 each, 20 years, 10%, and $800 credit on their books. The bonds are worth $800 cash now, and are a good investment. They bind themselves to pay all debts, etc. of Ogilvie, St. John, Usher & Thayer. The debts are not much, $300 or $400. I thought that as railroad matters stand at present all over the country we were better off to take that clear profit than run the risk of waiting to get more.
