ARTICLE SUBMISSION POLICY

Medieval Feminist Forum, the journal of the Society of Medieval Feminist Scholarship (SMFS), is published twice yearly (Winter & Summer issues). Its content includes articles (2,000–5,000 words) from any of the Humanities disciplines that address the study of the Patristic Age, the Middle Ages, and the Early Modern era from the perspective of gender studies, women’s studies, and feminist studies.

Individuals interested in publishing with MFF should send an electronic copy of their article(s) to the Managing Editor, or if specifically directed through a call for submissions, to a special topics editor. Articles should be submitted as a Microsoft Word document, or, barring that, as an rtf (rich text) file. Images meant to accompany an article may initially be submitted via e-mail. Upon acceptance, a CD-ROM must be provided. Complete guidelines may be obtained at <www.minotstateu.edu/mff>.

Upon submission acceptance, the author’s SMFS membership will be confirmed. Non-members or lapsed members will be asked to renew their membership prior to publication of their submission. Authors are generally notified within 3 to 6 months if their submission has been accepted for publication. Unpublished manuscripts are not returned.

BOOK REVIEW POLICY

Medieval Feminist Forum includes reviews of current scholarship that addresses issues of feminism(s) and gender studies in relation to any of the disciplines of Medieval Studies. Unsolicited reviews are not accepted. Reviewers should be faculty or qualified independent scholars who are SMFS members. Advisors, mentors, or faculty members of SMFS may suggest graduate students as reviewers of specific works that, in their judgment, the student is qualified to review.

Reviews (1,000–1,200 words, single monographs; 1,500–1,600, two monographs) are due within 3 months, and should be submitted in electronic format. If a review is not forthcoming after 3 months, the book is to be returned to the Book Review Editor for reassignment to another reviewer at your expense. Qualified persons interested in reviewing books should contact: Chris Africa, Book Review Editor; 2874 Triple Crown Lane, #10; Iowa City, IA 52240. E-mail: <chris-africa@uiowa.edu>. Phone: (319) 335-5017. Reviews will be edited for coherence and length; those that exceed these limits may be returned or refused. The review editor may also refuse to accept submissions that violate the standards of professional courtesy.

Books for review in MFF should be sent directly to: Medieval Feminist Forum; c/o Michelle M. Sauer; Department of English; Minot State University; 500 University Avenue West; Minot, ND 58707. Books submitted are not returned, and become the property of MFF.

SUBSIDIA PROPOSAL POLICY

Subsidia is the special topics series published occasionally by MFF. This series creates a forum for scholarship on focused topics that are of a scope too substantial for an article and too short for a full-sized book. The Advisory Board entertains proposals from interested editors, compilers, and/or authors. Please contact the MFF Managing Editor or the SMFS President for more information if you are interested in submitting a proposal.

MEDIEVAL FEMINIST FORUM ADVERTISING POLICY

Revised October 2004

As a service to its members, MFF publishes advertisements pertaining to medieval feminist studies from publishers, academic programs, and similar organizations and individuals. In order to facilitate the publication of advertisements, the following policies are established:

1. The Medieval Feminist Forum publishes advertisements pertaining to its focus on medieval feminist studies. The work of the members of MFF focuses on the time period from 400 to 1500 CE and on topics from gender studies, women’s studies, and feminist studies. Members’ fields of study include art history and architecture; archeology; religious studies; philosophy; church history; Patristics; mystical traditions; intellectual, social, political, economic, and cultural history; history of science and medicine; Latin, French, Italian, Spanish, Anglo–Saxon, English, Old Norse, and German literatures and cultures; medieval women writers; medieval ingames of masculinity and femininity; sexuality studies; history of patriarchy; manuscript studies; as well as the history of medievalism; history of the profession; modern reception of medieval authors and works; modern feminist and gender theory; films on medieval topics; pedagogy; the use of new technologies in the classroom; and the politics of modern academia in the United States and abroad, especially as it pertains to the place of medieval studies and to the professional lives of women. Members welcome advertisements dealing with the more “technical” tools necessary for their research such as document collections, archive indices, and dictionaries.

2. The cost of advertising in MFF is decided at MFF and MSU.
3. No more than 5% of each issue will be devoted to advertisements, unless there are extenuating circumstances. If an issue is short on regular copy, the decision to include more advertising copy is made by the Managing Editor of MFF.
4. Decisions about the suitability of proposed advertising for MFF and negotiations with advertisers about scheduling publication of advertisement copy are the responsibility of the Managing Editor of MFF. The editorial board of MFF may advise in case of problems. The final decision on running copy rests with the Managing Editor of MFF.

We will accept ad copy in PDF format only. With the PDF, please also include a hard copy that shows how the finished product should look.

Options for brief notices and advertising inserts are also available.

For current rates and to make arrangements for advertising, please contact the Managing Editor, or view the regulations on our website at <www.minotstateu.edu/mff>.
“Fundamentally, letters are shapes indicating voices. Hence they represent things which they bring to mind through the windows of the eyes. Frequently they speak voicelessly the utterances of the absent.”

— John of Salisbury, from his Metalogicon (translated by M. T. Clanchy)
