Japan's Prime Minister resigns

He promised to move the US base off of Okinawa, and he did not get it done. So he resigns. And it was breaking news according to The Washington Post.

News Alert: Japan's prime minister to step down, report says
09:07 PM EDT Tuesday, June 1, 2010
---------------------

Japanese prime minister Yukio Hatoyama has said he intends to resign, public broadcaster NHK said. Hatoyama told his party executives he intended to step down over his broken campaign promise to move a U.S. Marine base off the southern island of Okinawa, the report said.

For more information, visit washingtonpost.com:
http://link.email.washingtonpost.com/r/KYNZS9/UNQEJ/P3W2ZB/MGJMKV/8IIJQ/PJ/t

Search term: japan prime minister The first search produced 1500 messages, which impressed me. So I kept the language. It seemed about the simplest I could construct.

After the first search using Archivist on the desktop I moved it to Archivist online. Archivist online can only go back 500 messages, which it did. So the two can supplement each other.

© G. R. Boynton, 2010
June 1, 2010