Friend Leech

How d'ye do? — I have quite a hankering to hear from, and see Jamaica, and the Jamaicaites. — A pleasure of business, only, has prevented my coming out among the "friends of yours," and the familiar places which your village contains. — I was an hour in your village the other day, but did not have time to come up and see you, — I think of coming up in the course of the winter holidays. — Farewell, — and don't forget to write to me, through the P. O.

May your kind angel hover in the invisible air, and lose sight of your blessed presence never
