THE OHIO REVIEW (published fall, winter, spring) is a significant and interesting journal, providing a wide, inclusive presentation of the thought and writing of our time. In each issue is variety, quality, range, energy.

A special continuing feature of THE OHIO REVIEW is its series of interviews with contemporary poets. Previous issues include interviews with Adrienne Rich, Mark Strand, William Matthews, Galway Kinnell, Charles Simic, and Louis Simpson (all still available). Future issues will present interviews with John Berryman, James Tate, Louise Glück, Joyce Carol Oates, and Marvin Bell.

Address subscriptions to THE OHIO REVIEW, 346 Ellis Hall, Ohio University, Athens, Ohio 45701. One year $5; three years $12. (Foreign subscribers add $1 per year.) New subscriptions will begin with the current issue unless otherwise requested. (Single copy price: $2.)
