The Diary of Anne Frank

April 22-23
"The Diary of Anne Frank" marks the thirteenth regular production of the Iowa City Community Theatre since the groundwork was laid for its organization, in March of 1956.

In addition to its regular productions, the Community Theatre has produced an entry in the Play Production Festival held each spring in the University Theatre of SUI, beginning with that same spring of 1956, and every year since, including this year.

The Iowa City Community Theatre offers opportunities to its members for work in every area of dramatic production, even play-writing. New members are welcomed; interested adults in the community are invited to call any member or officer of the group about becoming a member.

One the greatest concerns of the ICCT is housing. Because ICCT is a non-profit organization, money for the building fund cannot grow as wishful thinking would have it grow.

The Board of Directors announces with pleasure that plans are underway for children's workshops again this summer. If everything goes well, a production for children will follow the workshops.
