M/ MLA

MIDWEST MODERN LANGUAGE ASSOCIATION

The Midwest Modern Language Association was organized in 1959 to promote the study and teaching of language and literature. The biannual M/MLA BULLETIN, edited by Paul Hernadi, is now in its twelfth year and is available with membership in the Association or by subscription to libraries.

In the Spring 1978 issue, devoted to "Re-Viewing Reviews," Wayne C. Booth, Jonathan Culler, Martin Esslin, Edith Kern, Murray Krieger, Herbert Lindenberger, and Theodore Ziolkowski examine the critical reception of their recent books.

Members of M/MLA may attend the Association's 20th Annual Meeting, November 2 to 4, 1978, at the Leamington Hotel in Minneapolis. The Fall 1978 issue of the Bulletin will be mailed in September and will include program information and registration forms.
