Tarot-Teller · Nathaniel Mackey

The
backs of her hands, whose thin bones
quiver,

thick lips
twitch, come telling
Hanged Man,

Hermit, Mage

And what they say is what you see, is what they get you lost
in,
looking

What they sow (her hands do) say

Let all else
go

Let all else waver,
waste away to bones
or be blown away
blind to what we say we'd see

Say we see without looking,

embrace but not touch, know the feel of skin we've yet to know or may never caress

Weird ragged edge of the absolute world
at her feet,
deserted
by whose desert
look you so love,
the coming down
of whose undone
hair
