Turning Thirty, I Contemplate Students Bicycling Home · Rita Dove

This is the weather of change and clear light. This is weather on its B side,
askew, that propels
the legs of young men in tight jeans wheeling through the tired, wise spring. Crickets too awake in choirs

out of sight, although I imagine we see
the same thing
and for a long way.

This, then, weather
to start over.
Evening rustles
her skirts of sulky
organza. Skin
prickles, defining what is and shall not be. . . .

How private
the complaint of these
green hills.
