1985

She's Not Exactly like You

James Laughlin

Follow this and additional works at: http://ir.uiowa.edu/iowareview
Part of the Creative Writing Commons

Recommended Citation
Available at: https://doi.org/10.17077/0021-065X.3207

This Contents is brought to you for free and open access by Iowa Research Online. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Iowa Review by an authorized administrator of Iowa Research Online. For more information, please contact lib-ir@uiowa.edu.
She's Not Exactly Like You

so she won't do and when the Lady Maeut had rejected Bertrand de Born sens totas ochaisos without any reason and he knew he would never find another like her que valha vos qu’ai perduda he said he would never love again ja mais no vuolh aver druda and in his poem Domna puois de me no-us chal he borrowed graces from seven other ladies from Cembelis and Aelis from the chatelaine of Chalais and the fair-tressed Agnes from the one he called Better-than-Good (Mielhs-de-Be) from Audiart and the toothsome Faidida from the mirror lady (who was she?) but taken all together they could not equal Maeut and so it is with me there is no other to replace you no sai on m’enquieira there’s nowhere I would look que ja mais non er per me tan rics jais for never will there be so rich a joy or a lady who pleases me so.