Vanity · Chrisula Stefanescu

Oh, my neck, superb as a cathedral tower beside which emerald lizards once lay sleepy in the afternoon.

Oh, my breasts, beside which the biblical metaphor of two pomegranates seems clumsy.

Oh, my hips,
on which your hands
were not able to remain quiet — once, at least.

Oh, my knees,
molded by the hollow of your hands,
birds ready to take wing, esoteric visions of stars.

Oh, my feet,
with their pink heels floating,
soft as tallow,
indifferent,
above our nights so alive!
