

1998

People Don't Know

William Aiken

Follow this and additional works at: <https://ir.uiowa.edu/iowareview>

Part of the Creative Writing Commons

Recommended Citation

Aiken, William. "People Don't Know." The Iowa Review 28.1 (1998): 186-186. Web.
Available at: <https://doi.org/10.17077/0021-065X.4975>

This Contents is brought to you for free and open access by Iowa Research Online. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Iowa Review by an authorized administrator of Iowa Research Online. For more information, please contact lib-ir@uiowa.edu.

William Aiken

PEOPLE DON'T KNOW

In the supermarket I was beaten to the last cabbage and slow to get my change out in the checkout lane.
Voices were raised when I tried to parallel park.
The doctor insisted I go back for the specimen.

There was gum on the park bench where I like to sit.
My children are very busy in the city.
The phone rings and asks for the man of the house.
The postman leaves brochures of lovely clothes.

I have put a little rouge on today
and will have a sandwich and soup at the Subway deli.
Albert used to come home with balloons.
People don't know it is my birthday.