DANIEL LUSK

Uncertain Light

Let me follow for now
the mind of the bear
in a forest of souls.

One who hears weeping.

Who may be attracted by the uncertain light of my torch
where I lie in wet snow under my truck to fasten the tire chains, sleet
turned to rain on my face.

Who knows I am singing
under my breath.
