Summer Sleep

Summer sleep I missed the dawn
My tired eyes too heavy to open

Far off birds argue freeways hiss
Car alarms trill false emergencies

In dream I am ten napping in the Master's house
My single bed a one-girl coffin

Too tight! I cry my feet can't fit!
He scowls and sighs scorns my mediocrity

Rain dances death coins on the roof
Time devours us imperceptibly

Empty womb pupils beg for entry
Unfinished poems don't know how many
