

Cassius Clem Stiles

ISSN 0003-4827

No known copyright restrictions.

Recommended Citation

"Cassius Clem Stiles." The Annals of Iowa 21 (1938), 399-399.

Available at: <https://doi.org/10.17077/0003-4827.6024>

Hosted by Iowa Research Online

After the World War Mr. Severa became interested in the welfare and education of children in the war stricken areas of his native land, and in 1925 established at Brn the American Home School. For many years he was a loyal supporter of the Damista Matice Skolska in Cedar Rapids which sought to aid the Czech youth of that city to better know their mother tongue.

CASSIUS CLEM STILES, former Superintendent of the Public Archives Division of the Historical, Memorial and Art Department of Iowa, died in Des Moines May 8, 1938. He was born in Madison County, Iowa, October 17, 1860, the son of Thomas W. and Mary Ann (Stockdale) Stiles. After attending Simpson College, 1880-81, he taught school until 1892. In the following year he removed from Patterson, Iowa, to Winterset, becoming in the same year deputy auditor of Madison County, serving as deputy until 1897, when he became auditor, which position he held until 1901. In January, 1902, he came to Des Moines as a deputy in the office of the Secretary of State, remaining there until 1907, when the Public Archives Division was established in the Historical, Memorial and Art Department. As the first superintendent of that division, Mr. Stiles wrote a manual of classification and filing of archival material widely used in other states. He was also a frequent contributor to the Annals of Iowa. In varying position, he had been in public service fifty-eight years. He was a Methodist in religion, and a Republican in politics.

FRANCIS R. KORNS, lawyer, died as the result of an accident in his home in Des Moines, Iowa, June 29, 1938. He was born January 1, 1873, in Dixon, Illinois, the son of Joseph and Martha (Moore) Korn. After graduating from the public schools of Dixon, Illinois, Mr. Korn took a commercial course at Steinman University, later he took the scientific course at the Northern Illinois Normal, from which he was graduated in 1894. A short time later he came to Des Moines, where he entered Drake University, graduating from the law department in 1899. His home since has been Des Moines. He was chairman of the committee which successfully sponsored the Des Moines plan of government in 1908, was president of the camp community service at Camp Dodge from 1917-19. He was also a member of the Board of Trustees of Drake University from 1909 until the time of his death.

DWIGHT N. LEWIS, Mayor of Des Moines and prominent worker among boys, died at his home in Des Moines May 1, 1938. He was born of Quaker parents in Oskaloosa, Iowa, May 26, 1869. He received his education at the East Des Moines High School and at Drake University, he Copyright of Annals of Iowa is the property of State of Iowa, by & through the State Historical Society of Iowa and its content may not be copied or emailed to multiple sites or posted to a listserv without the copyright holder's express written permission. However, users may print, download, or email articles for individual use.