Badger Behaving Badly

There are letters steamed open. There are bugs behind the wallpaper. There is a mechanical relief found between outsized mutton thighs. There is a word that forms reality into poetry, then fiction—an empty room lit by a bare bulb—there is the banality of evil—music echoing from a flood-control chamber. Net curtains around blacked-out windows. Plastic-wood cabinets withholding a good man.
Here are his Prussian gray polyester pants, his cheap mailman's boots that march.
