

FROM CLASS TO KITCHEN

A discussion on college student food insecurity

As the cost of college continues to rise, more students than ever are facing the choice of either paying for class, or eating.

What can be done?

Speakers:

Suzanne Hendrich: Iowa State University food science and human nutrition professor, Iowa State student food bank advisor

Sarah Benson Witry: The Crisis Center of Johnson County Food Bank & Emergency Assistance Director

Nate Smith-Tyge: Director of Michigan State University student food bank and co-founder of the College and University Food Bank Alliance

Steven Williams: North Liberty Food Pantry Special Projects Coordinator, Johnson County Food Policy Council Member, Local Foods Connection Board of Directors Member
