Migrant Workers and Minimum Wages

Regulating the Exploitation of Agricultural Labor in the United States

Marc Linder

Westview Press
BOULDER • SAN FRANCISCO • OXFORD
Index

Abernethy, Thomas: remarks by on employment status of sharecroppers in House, 224-25
Adkins v. Children's Hospital, 110-11, 120-23
Age Discrimination in Employment Act: paternalism in, 89-90 n.86
Agency doctrine, 201
Agricultural Adjustment Act (AAA), 135 as enclosure movement expelling black sharecroppers, 142-44 Agricultural Adjustment Administration (AAA): conflict between and NRA over exclusion of workers in agriculture-related industries from NIRA codes, 135-42 discrimination against black sharecroppers under, 142-46 Agricultural exceptionalism, 29, 42, 294 ideology of, xvi statutory origins of in New Deal, 125-75 Agricultural Gangs Act, 197 n.74
Agricultural ladder, 163-64 Agricultural Wage Board: proposal to establish, 289
Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), 17-18
Alchian, Armen: notion of shirking as developed by, 210 understanding by of differences between employment and other contracts, 201-202, 209-10 Alexander, Will (Farm Security Administrator), 150
American Farm Bureau Federation: opposition by to labor standards for domestic farm workers, 49 n.166 American Federation of Labor (AFL): position of on FLSA, 81
Analytic Marxism, 65-66 n.3, 202 n.88 Anti-enticement laws:
  as method of holding black workers as captive labor force for plantations, 41, 158-59
  as method of holding Mexican workers as captive labor force in Texas, 41-42
Arneson, Richard:
  view of paternalism of, 74 n.31 Asgrow Seed: as sweatshop employer of migrant detasselers, 32 n.103
Atiyah, Patrick: on paternalism, 75 n.32,
92 n.96
Authority relations in migrant agriculture:
  as reflection of lagging technological development, 212 atavistic character of, 89, 177, 194-95, 207-13
Index

Bacon, Robert: racist remarks on Mexican laborers in House, 44
Baumol, William: on minimum wage, 114 n.61
Benson, Ezra: criticizes labor standards in agriculture as social revolution, 48
Black, Hugo: introduces FLSA bill in Senate in 1937, 153
Black Belt: as center of southern white supremacy, 131
Black workers: industrial distribution of in South in 1930s, 147 n.88
Blinder, Alan: see Baumol, William Borah, William: remarks by on purpose of FLSA in Senate, 95
Borello & Sons v. Dept of Indus. Relations, 265-71
Bowles, Chester: on purpose of FLSA, 95 n.1, 96 n.5, 104 n.29
Box, John, 44
Bracero program, 42, 43, 45-46 chief use of by state and type of farm, 43 n.141 implicit labor market model of, 46 origins of, 14 termination of, 42, 49 n.166 use of to supply cucumber pickers in Midwest, 14-15, 228-29 use of to supply sugar-beet workers, 53-54 n.179 Bramwell, George (Baron of the Exchequer Court): defining master-servant relationship by reference to control, 184, 184 n.26
 Brand, Othal, Sr., 179 n.7, 276 n.7
 Brozen, Yale: on minimum wage laws, 108 n.44
 Burawoy, Michael: inapplicability of consent model of employment of to migrants, 208 n.108 Byrd, Harry (Senator, Va.): opposition of to federal control over southern states' treatment of old-age assistance for Blacks, 148-49 opposition of to minimum wages, 131-32
 Byrnes, James: as representative of racist planters in Senate, 150
 California Agricultural Relations Board, 272
 California Rural Legal Assistance (CRLA), 264, 264 n. 184
 California Supreme Court: decision of on sharecropping, 267-71
 Camp, Bill, 144
 Campbell Soup Co.: as sweatshop employer of migrant pickle pickers, xvi, 38, 237 collective bargaining agreement between and FLOC, 302 n.91
 Canning industry: as employers of migrants, 38 Capital: equipment: lack of in migrant work, 4 n.9, 198-200 investment as criterion of independent contractor status, 240-41, 198-99 lack of as determinant of sweatshop conditions in agriculture, 12-13, 21-22
 Capper-Volstead Act, 302
 Census of Agriculture, 61-63
 Cheap food policy, 26 n.87 as based on cheap migrant labor, 278-79 Child labor:
 among migrant farm workers, xii-xiii, 10, 24-25, 236-37, 251-52, 273 as depressing agricultural wage level, 54-55, 87-88, 252-54 in detasseling, 31 in sugar beets, 52-55, 53 n.178, 85-86 n.73 lawful employment of in agriculture, 85-86 of farm families, 24-25, 61-62 paternalism and, 84, 87-88 prohibition of, 84-88, 281-82 replacement of by migrants, 282 n.23
 Citrus Industrial Council, 286
 Citrus industry: exclusion of from NIRA, 137-40
 Ciudad Juarez: as source of workers for chile harvest in New Mexico, 7
 Civil Works Administration, 152 Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC): discrimination in against southern Blacks, 149-50 Coad, Merwin: critique by in House of Index

implicit labor market model underlying bracero program, 46 Coase, Ronald: on vertical integration and nature of firm, 204-207
Cobb, Cully, 144 Codes of fair competition: in agriculture-related industries, 135-42 see also NIRA Cohen, Wilbur: drafter of Social Security Act, 148, n.90 Commons, John: on authority relations in agriculture, 212 Commuting: compulsory unpaid long­ distance by migrants, 6-8, 292-93 Congress: southern racist domination of during New Deal, 129-30
Connery, William: introduces FLSA bill in House in 1937, 153 Control:
as personal worksite subordination, 190 by employer not negated by insertion of intermediate layers of supervision, 35 employer's of employees as basis of employment relationship, 182-85, 234, 241-42 mere absence of does not necessarily identify independent contractor, 268 n.196
not negated by simplicity of work making detailed supervision unnecessary, 34, 34 n.110, 267 role of under Poor Laws, 190-91 Control test:
as reflection of unequal access to resources, 194-95
ascendancy of as test of employment relationship, 185 judicial parody of by Talbot Smith, 266 judicial evolution of asynchronous with evolution of employers' economic control, 192-93 Cooper, John: remarks by on employment status of sharecroppers in Senate, 224
Corbin, Arthur: on reasons for sequence of performance and payment in employment contracts, 297 Cotton: ginning: exclusion of from NIRA, 140-41
hoeing of by migrants, xii-xiii, 218 importance of to southern economy, 160-61
picking of by migrants, xii Cox, Edward: racist opposition by to FLSA in House, 155 Crew leaders:
employers' forcing workers to register as, 253-54 role of in detasseling, 30-33 see also labor contractors, labor catchers
Criminalizing theft of migrants' labor, 296 Crops:
as luxury commodities, 280 diversification of to decasualize migrant labor, 304 elasticity of demand for, 117-18 produced by migrants:
aspargus, 239 n.90
chile peppers, 6-11 citrus, 137-40 cotton, xii-xiii hybrid seed corn, 30-33, 60 onions, 16, 205-206, 253 pecans, 141-42
pickling cucumbers, 216-17, 227-48, 264-71 sod, 16 soy beans, 60 strawberries, 217-19, 248-64 sugar beets, 60
wheat, 6, 11-13
Current Population Survey (CPS):
methodological flaws of, 100 n.17
Custom combine operations, 206 n.102, 242
Davis, Chester (AAA Administrator), 143
Davis, John P. (National Negro Congress): views of on discriminatory impact of New Deal legislation on Blacks, 154
Day Laborer Protection Act of 1971, 293
Del Monte Corp., 38
Democratic party: racist basis of New Deal coalition in, 128-30, 153-54
Index

Demsetz, Harold: see Alchian, Armen
Dent, John: remarks by on employment status of sharecroppers on House, 221-23 Dependent contractors: ideological reasons for not characterizing employees as, 181, 188 use of in forestry, 35 n.112
Detasseling, 30-33
Dicey, A.: on collectivism, 66 n.8
Domestic employees: coverage of under protective statutes, 198 n.79
Dona Ana County, N.M.: employment of migrant chile harvesters in, 9-10
Donovan v. Brandel, 235-42
Donovan v. Gillmor, 234-36
Driscoll Strawberry Associates, 257-59
Dual labor market analysis, 105
Durkheim, Emile: on prohibition of intolerable exploitation, 270
Dworkin, Gerald: views of on paternalism, 74 Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC): and minimum wage, 68 n.15, 109 Easterbrook, Frank (7th Circuit judge):
  characterization of all migrant farm workers as employees, 178, 200-201, 246-47 critique by of economic reality of dependence test, 244-46 Law & Economics approach of as distinguished from Lochnerism, 270-71 on purpose of FLSA, 246-47 Economic reality of dependence:
  as conflated with interdependence, 194, 196 as manipulable test of employment, 239-42 as test of employment relationship, 268-69 critique by of Judge Easterbrook, 244-46 factors of, 189-90, 198-200, 234 incoherence of, 195-97 relationship between and control, 190-97 Economic-reality-of-class-poverty test:
  as proto-economic dependence test and as test of employment relationship, 187, 195, 268-70
El Paso: shape-up in, 7
Elster, Jon: view of paternalism of, 74
Emigrant agent laws: in Texas, 41 Employee: control as criterion of being, 182-85 definition of under FLSA, NLRA, SSA, 186 definition of under Truck Act, 187 economic-reality-of-class-poverty test of, 195 economic reality of dependence test of, 186-90, 257
Engel's law, 279
Enticement actions: evolution of notion of employers' control in, 184
Epstein, Richard: on statutory minimum wage as partial taking, 95-96 n.2 Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA): absence of regional differentials in, 83 as covering piece-rate work, xiii as denounced by economists, xviii as paternalistic, 80-81 belated partial incorporation of farm workers into in 1966, 45, 221 conflict between capital-intensive and labor-intensive firms over, 80, 82-84 criminal sanctions of, 296-97 economic reality test of employment under, 189-90 employment status of migrants under, 177-80 exclusion from of employees of small farm employers, 59, 293-97 hearings on in 1937, 79-83 impact of hypothetical racial-sectional coverage of farm workers on exclusion of farm workers under in 1930s, 167-71 impermissibility of class actions under, 179 n.8 industry-wide wage committees under, 303 judicial interpretations of as devoid of passion, 247 legislative history of, 153-55 man-day coverage under, 294 discrimination by against Blacks in levels of relief payments, 151-52 percentage of labor force covered by, 126 removal by of Mexican-American percentage of migrants covered by, 125 farm workers from relief rolls in permissive regulation of child labor
New Deal to augment supply of by, 84-88
Federal Insurance Contributions Act policy behind according to Judge (FICA), 230
Easterbrook, 246-47
Fellow-servant rule, 184-85 position of Pres. Franklin Roosevelt on, 98-99
Firm: theory of authority relations pre-payment of wages to migrants as within, 204-213 penalty for violation of, 298-99 Florida: proposal to eliminate exclusion from of employees of small farm employees, 293-96 regional conflict over between northern and southern employers, 83, 98 n.12 subminimum wage for students provided for in, 121 n.82 type of exploitation prohibited by, 80 see also Minimum wage Fair Trade Wages Act, 280 n.17
False pretense laws: as method of False pretense laws: as method of immobilizing black farm workers on plantations, 157
Family farm:
child labor on, 24-25, 61-62 definition of, 294-95 disqualification as of farms using migrants, 295 hourly wage equivalents of self-exploitation on, 25-26, 61-63
Family wage, 54-55, 57-58, 119 n.72
Farm Labor Contractor Registration Act (FLCRA), 286 n.34
Firm: theory of authority relations
Farm Labor Organizing Committee (FLOC): (collective bargaining agreement between and Campbell and Heinz, 302 n.91
position of on mechanization, xix n.28 position of on sharecropping, 242 Farm workers:
racial-regional distribution of in 1930s, 165-67 skewed concentration of employment of in 1930s, 169-70
Fechner, Robert, 150
Fuchsen, Robert, 150
Federal Emergency Relief Administration (FERA):
Garst Seed: as sweatshop employer of migrant detasselers, 37 Gauthier, David:
on liberal theory of market society, 276 n.6
on market failure, 72
General Motors, 14-15, 245
Genovese, Eugene: on paternalism, 71 n.21 Germany:
origin of migrant agricultural system in, 50-51 Polish migrants in, 35 n.113 sugar beet production in by migrants, 50-51
Glasscock County, Ga., 159
Government-created employment as superseding minimum wage laws, 305
Great Western Sugar Co.: as sweatshop employer of Mexican-American sugar-beet workers, 54-55, 60, 60 n.201
Green, T.H.: on need to place restrictions on sale of labor, 275
Green, William (Pres. AFL): on FLSA, 76 n.36
Griffin & Brand of McAllen, Inc.: as sweatshop employer of migrants, 179
Griffith, David: see Ed Kissam
Guaranteed income system: as decoupled from employment relationship, 197, 305
H-2 workers, 43 n.142, 49 n.166, 287 abuse of by sugar cane industry, 287, 288 n.41
Hammer v. Dagenhart, 84-85 n.70
Hardin, Russell: view of paternalism of, 74 n.31, 77 n.39
Harrison, Pat (chairman, Senate Finance Comm. during New Deal), 144 Hayek, Friedrich: on incompatibility between individual freedom and distributive justice, 65 n.3
on paternalism, 78 n.44 on welfare state, 65
Heine, Heinrich, ix Heinz:
as sweatshop employer of pickle pickers, 38, 237
collective bargaining agreement between and FLOC, 302 n.91
Hobsbawm, Eric, 66
Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 244, 299
Holt, James: on state agricultural labor policy, 45 n.150
Hopkins, Harry (WPA Administrator), 152
Housing: of migrants, 8, 89-90, 293 Huffman, Wallace:
on importation of agricultural laborers, 282 n.24 on perfectly elastic supply of low-wage farm labor, 14 on use by farmers of labor contractors as judgment-proof violators of law, 36 n.115 Ickes, Harold, 129 n.20
Immigration laws, 43-44 ideological nature of debates on, 43-44
Imperial Chemical Industries: as sweatshop employer of migrant detasselers, 37 Importation of migrant farm workers: as wage depressant, 42-43 proposal to prohibit, 282
Income of migrants, xi-xii, xix-xx, 9-10, 17-18 Independent contractors: attempts by employers to cast migrants as, 177-80 economic consequences for migrants of being treated as, 179-80 employers' imposing biological limits on ability of to exploit labor, 236-37 employers' treating workers as as species of law evasion, 36, 59 incompatibility of with lack of skill, 197-200 treatment of migrants as by cotton farmers, xii-xiv, 218 treatment of migrants as by pickling cucumber industry, 217-21, 227-48 treatment of migrants as by strawberry industry, 248-59 Independent contractor-employee dichotomy: control as criterion of, 182-85 descending significance of for social-Index

welfare legislation, 195-97
roots of in Roman law distinction between locatio conductio operis and locatio conductio operarum, 180-81
Inside contracting: as stage in evolution of employers' control, 192-93
Integration into firm as criterion of employment relationship, 183-84
Internal Revenue Code (IRC): employment status of sharecroppers under, 231-34 Internal Revenue Service (IRS), xiii view of of employment status of sharecroppers, 231-34 International Paper Co.: as sweatshop employer of migrant tree planters, xvi, 37 International Workers of the World (IWW): as organizer of migrant wheat harvesters, 11 farm-employers' animus against as basis for exclusion of farm workers from NLRA, 127 n.14, 142 on self-employment in farming as circumvention of minimum wage law, 63 Iowa: wage payment law of making seed companies employers of last resort, 285 n.33
Jackson, Robert (Ass't Att'y Gen.): views on FLSA of, 81, 82, 93 n.99
Javits, Jacob: remarks by in Senate on purpose of extending application of FLSA to farm workers, 7 n.17
Johnston, Oscar (AAA official and plantation owner), 144 n.73 Jones, Richard:
on proletarian character of day-laborers, 190 on transformation of unhired laborers into employees, 210-11
Jones-Costigan Act, 56 nn.187-88
Judiciary: views of on protective legislation, 272 Kahn-Freund, Otto: on freedom of contract, 92 on limited power of law to help workers with little market power, 65 view by of employment relationship as power relationship, 260-61 views of on evolution of independent contractor-employee dichotomy, 192, 203 Kelman, Steven: views on paternalism of, 72, 78 n.44 Kissam, Ed: on crew leaders, 286 n.37 on migrant labor markets, 2 n.4 permissive view of child labor of, 88 n.179 Kleinig, John:
misunderstanding by of paternalistic nature of minimum wage laws, 81 n.57 views on paternalism of, 75 n.33
Ku Klux Klan: intimidation of citrus workers in Florida in 1930s by, 138 Labor: disutility of, 280
forced sale of, 18-19 Labor catchers:
as judgment-proof intermediaries, 36-37 as recruiters and transporters of migrants, 205 n.98 as symptom rather than cause of migrant labor market defects, 29-30 typical unlawful practices of, 35-37 see also labor crew leaders, labor contractors Labor contracting, 27-30 futility of policing, 283-85 in tree planting, 34-37 law regulating in Nebraska, 284 n.30 proposal to abolish, 286 Labor contractors:
futility of policing, 283-85
see also crew leaders, labor catchers
Labor contracts: difference between and nonlabor contracts, 201-202
Labor market, 68-69
Labor market failure, 121 Labor markets for migrants, 4-6 as disarticulated from other labor markets, 14 disorganized state of, 23 proposal to decasualize, 287-88 Labor supply:
- 'irrational' of migrants, 18-20
- perfectly elastic of farm workers, 14, 126
- proposal to reduce, 281-83

Labor supply curve: backward bending, 18-20

Labor unions:
- labor market functions of, 68-69, 282-83
- peculiarities of in agriculture, 301-302
- position of regarding minimum wage laws, 81

LaFollette, Robert, Jr.:
- failure of to investigate peonage among black sharecroppers, 130 n.23
- proposal by of programs for migrants in 1942, 281 n.21, 289

Larson, Arthur, 199 n.82

Latin America:
- as exporter of fruits and vegetables to U.S., 115, 118, 279-80
- as source of harvest workers for U.S., xv n.14, 279

Latin Americanization of harvest wages in U.S., 273

Law:
- instrumentalism of, 260, 263
- limits of vis-à-vis workers with little market power, xvii, 65-69
- mechanistic conception of as monolithically capital-functional, 67 n.10

Law & Economics:
- analysis of agency by, 201
- analysis of nature of firm by, 204-206 as distinguished from Lochnerism, 270-71
- cooperative view of capital-labor relations of, 211-12
- understanding of relationship between contracting and vertically integrating, 201-202, 204-206
- use of transactional analysis by, 197, 201

Levitan, Sar: on minimum wage, 100 n.18, 112 n.56

Lewis, John L.: views on FLSA of, 81 n.58

Lippmann, Walter, 24

Living wage:
- failure to pay by sugar beet producers leading to subsidies in form of relief payments, 59 n.197
- relation of to minimum wage, 119-23

Locatio conductio operarum and locatio conductio operarum: as origin of distinction between independent and dependent contractors 180-81,

Lochnerism, 270, 271

Lubin, Isador (U.S. Comm'r Labor Statistics): views of on purpose of FLSA in regulating competition, 79, 82

Lumley v. Gye, 184

McLaughlin v. Seafood, Inc., 198 n.79

McWilliams, Carey: framework of for understanding migrants' situation, 3-4

Marshall, Alfred: view by of sharecropping, 255 n.149

Martin, David: remarks by on employment status of sharecroppers in House, 221-22

Martin, Philip:
- analogizing labor market for migrants to that for athletes, 275-76 n.4
- on farmers' reliance on state for supply of migrants, 6
- on mechanization, 279-80 n.16
- on number of migrants, xiv n.13
- views of on crew leaders, 29, 284 n.30

Marx, Karl:
- concepts of formal and real subsumption as developed by, 204 n.95
- on child labor, 87 n.78
- on sharecropping, 219
- on sweating system, 28 n.93
- on workers' advances to employers, 297, 298 n.77
- views of on purpose of mechanical inventions, xviii-xix

Matamoros, Mexico: as part of Rio Grande Valley farm labor market, 17

Maximum hours legislation:
- as example of paternalism, 73-74
- exclusion of farm workers from, 126 radical version of held unconstitutional in Alaska, 292 n.57
Mechanization of migrants' work, 3-4, 116-17, 282-83 as inhibited by low wages, xviii, 10 Mexican workers: employed in agriculture in U.S., 14, 16, 40-49, 52-54, 60 Mexico: U.S. labor import agreements with, 14, 49
Michigan: pickle picking in, 14-15, 228-30, 235-42
Midwest: migrants in, 53, 60, 217-18, 227-48 Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act (AWPA), 288 as paternalistic legislation, 88-93 employment status of migrants under, 177-80
procedural and substantive elements of, 88-92 Migrant farm workers:
as dependent employees, xiv, 178 as employed in backward niches of production based on technology of genetic manipulation, 30-37 as having low opportunity costs, 209, 254 as immobilized in minimum-wage jobs, 275
as lifelong proletariat, xv, 275-76 as quasi-captive labor force, 40, 92 as represented by federally funded legal services lawyers, 263, 264, 271 as subject to control, 208-209, 212-13 as unskilled, xii, 246, 277 compensation of for travel time, 293 definition of, xiv-xv exclusion of from overtime provision of FLSA, 126, 289-93
"hauling" of, 6-7, 90-91 housing of, 8 hypermobility of, 1-3, 40 lack of nonwage benefits for, 90, 296
n.70 litigation involving merely aimed at restoring status quo, xvii, 262 litigation involving status of as employees, 177-79
local seasonal workers as subject to same exploitation as, 91 n.93, 92 low reservation wage of, 4, 14, 18, 37 mechanization of jobs of, 3-4 migration patterns of by race in 1930s, 168 n.151 mobilization of supply of to work in remote locations, 6-11, 50-53
New Zealand sheep shearers as international, 1 n.3 number of, xiv n.13 origins of migrancy of, 3-4 overrecruitment of as employment practice, 22-24, 29, 48 proposal to make fixed-situs producers statutory employers of, 285-86 proposal to mandate substantive contract guarantees for, 287-88 proposed doubling of minimum wage for, 278-81, 288 proposed pensions for, 305-306 racial-ethnic composition of, xiv-xv sweatshop conditions of, 20-26
Third-World living standards of, 42 time of as valued by employers and selves, 209 transformation of into agricultural proletariat in sugar-beet production, 50-55 traded by employers as proprietary resource, 40 unemployment among, xi, xiii-xiv wages of as depressed by reserve army of underemployed, 16 wages of as small share of consumer prices, 116, 278-79
Mikva, Abner, 293
Mill, John Stuart:
on maximum hours legislation, 72-74, 78,
on paternalism, 72, 72-73 n.26, 79
on slavery contracts, 92 Minimum wage:
abolition of sweating as purpose of,
95-96
as anti-poverty measure, 100-104, 119-20 as diluted version of Swedish solidaristic wage policy, 107
as industrial policy, 107-108, 115 as quasi-means-tested entitlement, 120 concentration of workers earning in retail and service industries, 115 <table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
</tr> </thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>disemployment effect of, 102</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>domestic workers and, 105</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>earned income tax credit and, 68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>n.15, 102-103, 108</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>function of as minimalist surrogate labor union, 97-98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in agriculture in Britain, 56 n.188</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in Japan, 107 n.40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>international competition and, 115-18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>laws in states excluding farm workers, 59-60, 126</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>lifelong employment at, 105</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>living wage and, 100-102, 119-23</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>low-wage labor markets and, 104-109</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>macroeconomic allocative efficiency effects of, 103-104, 110-14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>marginalist economic criticism of, 113-14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>migrant farm workers and, 105, 115-18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>modal worker earning, 97 n.9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nonpoor workers and, 102, 121-22</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>number and demographic characteristics of workers earning, 100 n. 17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>101 n.22</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>oligopsonistic labor markets and, 113-14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>opponents of, 101-103, 112, 121</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paternalism and, 78-84</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>percentage of migrants paid, 105 n.34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>proponents of, 100-101, 112, 121</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>proposal to double, 278-81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>purposes of, 95-97, 110-11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>relation of to poverty, 100-104</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>shock effect of on firms, 104 n.29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>use of in Western Europe, 104</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>violations of in southern agriculture, 125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>wage subsidies and, 108-109 n.45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>see also Fair Labor Standards Act</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Minimum Wage Study Commission, 294 n.63</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mitchell, James: position of as Sec'y of Labor on overtime coverage for farm workers, 292</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Model Penal Code: as basis for prosecuting wage-theft, 296</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(NAACP): testimony on de facto exclusion of black workers from Social Security Act, 148-49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>National Association of Manufacturers (NAM): position of on FLSA, 82-83 n.65, 84</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>National Council of Agricultural Employers, 285-86</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>National Farmers Union (NFU): as favoring coverage of farm workers on large farms under FLSA, 171 on exploitative nature of farm labor contracting system, 38</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>National Industrial Recovery Act (NIRA):</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>discrimination against southern black industrial workers under, 133-34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>exclusion of workers in citrus and cotton ginning industries from codes under, 134-42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>National Labor Relations Act (NLRA), xvi</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>definition of employee under, 186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>exclusion of farm workers from during New Deal, 127 n.14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>proposed amendment of to cover farm workers, 301-302</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>National Pickle Growers Association, 229</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>National Recovery Administration (NRA): conflict between and AAA over exclusion of workers in agriculture-related industries from NIRA codes, 135-42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>National Urban League: position on FLSA in 1930s, 155</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nebraska: farm labor contractor statute of, 284 n.30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nelson, Dorothy (9th Cir. judge): dissent by on fair competition as goal of FLSA, 97 n.8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New Deal:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>legislative policy of toward sugar beet workers, 55-59</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>origin of statutory agricultural exceptionalism in, xv-xvi</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>racist character of Democratic party coalition in, 127-32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New Jersey: right to organize by migrants in, 302-303</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New Mexico: migrants harvesting chile peppers in, 6-11</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
New York Times:
editorial position of on FLSA, 102 n.25
uncritical reporting by on agricultural employment practices, xxi Northrup King Co.: as sweatshop employer of migrant detasselers, 37
Ohio: pickle picking in, 231
Ohio Bureau of Employment Services: classification by of sharecroppers as self-employed, 233
Okun, Arthur: on purpose of minimum wage law, 99
O'Neal, Edward (Farm Bureau official during New Deal), 143 n.72
Opportunistic behavior by employers, 205-206
Orange County, N.Y.: employment of South Texas migrants on onion and sod farms in, 16
Organic farming, 303-304
Overrecruitment of migrants as element of sweating, 22-24, 29, 48 Overtime provision of FLSA:
exclusion of farm workers from, 126, 289-92
exclusion of farm workers from as unconstitutional, 289 n.46 proposal to include farm workers under, 290-92
Owen-Keating Act, 84-85 n.70
Padrone system, 28
Paternalism:
Age Discrimination in Employment Act and, 89-90 n. 86 analogy of to affirmative action, 92-93 as potentially ahistorical category, 69-70 biological-familial, 75, 87 child labor and, 84, 87-88 differences between mandatory minimum wage and old-age pension with regard to, 76-77 dual nature of regarding child labor, 84
"impure" or indirect, 77-78, 91 minimum wage and, 78-84 on behalf of farmers, 92 n.96 pre-capitalist, 69-71
"pure" or direct, 77-78 self-liquidating, 76 n.37, 92, 277 socioeconomic, 71, 277 strong, 75 vis-à-vis migrants, 88-93, 261-62 vis-à-vis seamen, 88-89 weak, 75
welfare-state: as continuous with poor-law relief, 68
Pepper, Claude: remarks by on purpose of FLSA in Senate, 95
Perkins, Frances (Secretary of Labor during New Deal): role of in CCC's accommodation of southern racism, 150 view by of purpose of FLSA, 96, 153
Permanence and exclusivity of employment relationship:
as applied to domestic workers and migrant farm workers, 198 n.79 as incoherent determinants of employment relationship, 198 n.79, 240, 246 Pickle picking:
in Rio Grande Valley, 253-54 processors as migrants' employers, 230, 237 sharecropping in, 253-54 transition of labor supply for from braceros to Texas-Mexican migrants in Midwest in 1960s, 14-15, 228-29 Piece rates, xiii, 10-11 as basis of sweating, 21-22 as rendering overt control unnecessary, 213-14, 238-39 as used in pickle sharecropping, 237-39, 242, 246 n.116, 253 in sugar beet industry, 57-58 nineteenth-century statutes protecting miners paid, 39 n.127
Pigou, A.C.: on statutory minimum wage, 111-12
Piore, Michael: on sweatshops, 21-23
Pioneer Hi-Bred International, Inc.: as sweatshop employer of migrant detasselers, 31-33 nn.101-103 & 105-107
Plantations, 40
as large-scale employers, 161 definition of, 161 n.131
Index

in South and Southwest, 163 opposition by to coverage of sharecroppers under FLSA, 164-65 unconstitutional structure of labor system of, 156-59 unique dependence of on low-wage black labor, 159-65 unique incompatibility of with national minimum wage, 156 Poage, William: remarks by on employment status of sharecroppers
in House, 224-25
Poor laws: control as criterion of service
under, 182-83, 190-91
Portal-to-Portal Act: inapplicability of to migrant farm workers, 293 Posner, Richard: judicial style of, 244 on distinction between independent contractors and employees, 238
n.86 unprecedented judicial critique by of FLSA, 247 n.119
Powell, Adam Clayton: remarks by on employment status of sharecroppers
in House, 222-24
Processors as employers of migrants,
230, 253, 265
Procter & Gamble: as sweatshop employer of migrant tree planters in southern forests, xvi, 37 Profit and loss: opportunity for and risk of as determinant of independent contractor status, 234, 241 Pseudo-sharecropping:
as evasion of statutory obligations, 221, 262-63, 265
as form of piece-rate wages, 217-18, 238-39
as method of combating unions, 218-19 as method of internalizing discipline, 238-39
as part of wider trend to treat employees as independent contractors, 218 in California, 248-72 in harvesting pickling cucumbers, 217-21, 227-48 in harvesting strawberries, 248-59 in Midwest, 221, 227-48 Racism: role of in treatment of migrants, 12, 19, 40-41, 40 n.129, 44, 54, 127 Raushenbush, Elizabeth Brandeis, 281
n.21
Rawls, John: view of paternalism of, 75
n.33 Reagan administration: view by of sharecropping, 263, 272
Real, Alonzo: retrospective by on strawberry sharecropping, 257-59
Real v. Driscoll Strawberry Associates,
Inc., 256-59, 264
Reilly, Gerard (DOL Solicitor), 133
n.31
Reynosa, Mexico: as part of Rio Grande Valley labor market, 2 n.4, 17
Rio Grande Valley:
as largest source of migrants in U.S., 1-3
as Third World enclave subject to token enforcement of labor laws, 45 characteristics of migrant labor market in, 17, 278, 283 n.29 child labor in, xii-xiii, 53 n.178, concentration of wage labor in agriculture of, 170 pickle-picking in, 253-54 relief rolls as source of labor in during New Deal, 153
Road to Serfdom, 65-66
Robertson v. Baldwin, 89
Robinson, Joseph (Senate Majority Leader during New Deal), 144, 146 Roosevelt, President Franklin:
acceptance by of wage differentials for southern industries under NIRA, 134
as submitting to ultimatum by southern Senators regarding AAA, 144, 146 delegation of functions by under NIRA, 136
in coalition with southern plantation owners, 128-29 message of to Congress accompanying FLSA bill, 154 on class impasse leading to need for FLSA, 98-99
on "wage-chiseling," 78
Index

Sachs v. United States, 230-34
Samuelson, Paul: on backward-bending labor supply curve, 18 n.58, 20, n.65
Sandoz: as sweatshop employer of migrant detasslers, xvi, 37
Santa Maria Valley, California: strawberry sharecropping in, 249
Secretary of Labor v. Lauritzen, 243-48
Self-employed:
employers' classifying workers as to avoid coverage under labor laws, xiii-xiv exclusion of from New Deal social legislation, 182, 188 exclusion of from workers' compensation systems, 268-69 prohibiting overtime work by, 292 n.57 workers who cannot afford medical insurance should not be regarded as, 269 Self-employment:
as self-exploitation, 252-53, 258, 262, 295 ideology of, 272-73
Self-exploitation, 24-26, 62, 258, 262, 273
Service Contract Act, 37-38 n.121 Shape-up: as disciplinary practice in migrant agricultural employment, 4-5, 7 Sharecroppers: coverage of under FLSA, 220-25 criticism of classification of as farm operators, 164 n.142 displacement of by wage laborers in 1930s, 164 legal position of vis-à-vis plantation owner, 164-65, 165 n.143 peculiarly vulnerable position of black sharecroppers, 162-63 views on by DOL, 221, 224-25, 263
Sharecropping:
as family sweatshop, 251-52, 259
as originating in South after Civil War, 215-16 changes in during New Deal, 216 demise of in South, 216 freedmen's attitude toward, 216 in cucumbers in Midwest, 217-21, 227-48 in Europe in 19th century, 215 n.2, 255 in South, 161-65, 225-27 in various crops, 217 Marx on, 219
quasi-feudal nature of in South, 227
"Shirking," 210, 238
Simon, Herbert:
applicability of model of to migrants' employment relationships, 208-209 on differences between employment and other contracts, 207 Skill:
as economic dependence test factor, 198-200, 240 relative as criterion of employment relationship, 183-84, 199-200 Smith, "Cotton" Ed:
as chair of Senate Agriculture Comm. during New Deal, 144 opposition to FLSA as undermining low-wage economy in South, 171
Smith, Talbot: judicial parody by of control test, 266
Social wage, 186, 189
Social Security Act (SSA):
de facto exclusion of southern Blacks from, 147-48 definition of employee under, 186 discrimination against southern Blacks with regard to old-age pensions and old-age assistance provisions in, 148-49 exclusion from and subsequent incorporation in of self-employed, 82, 88 exclusion of farm workers and domestic workers from in New Deal, 147-48 extrusion of agriculture-related workers from during New Deal, 142 inclusion of farm workers and farmers in 1950s, 221 Social-welfare legislation:
binary world of regarding employee status, 182, 195, 263-64 middle-class reformers as supporters of, 67 Solidaristic wage policy:
in France, xx n.29 in Sweden, 107
South:
Index

<table> <thead>
<tr>
<th>Term</th>
<th>Page(s)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>as uniquely agricultural region, 160</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>&quot;solid&quot; on race issues, 130-31</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>supply of cheap labor in, 132</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>unconstitutional exclusion of blacks from political life of, 128</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Southern agriculture:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>unique dependence of on cotton, 160-61</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>unique dependence of on labor-intensive crops, 160-61</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Southern Tenant Farmers' Union (STFU), 146</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sowell, Thomas: on efficiency effects of mandatory minimum wage, 112</td>
<td>n.55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Speenhamland system, 123</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Starr County, Texas, xi</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>State:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>rejection by of domestic farm labor standards during World War II, 47-49</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>role of in creating large supply of cheap farm labor, 40-60</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Statute of Labourers, 181-82</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stigler, George: on minimum wage, 113</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stokely-Van Camp: as sweatshop employer of migrants, 38</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Subminimum wages, xiii, 253</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sugar Act of 1937, 55-59</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>amendment of in 1940, 58</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>child labor provisions of, 56, 57-59</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>pre-modern character of, 58</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>pro-employer biases of, 56-59</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>termination of, 58 n.194, 59</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sugar beets:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>cultivation and harvesting of as origin of modern ethnic migrant system in U.S. and Germany, 50-55</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>employment of Mexican-American migrants in 1930’s in, 168-69 n.151</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>joint employment by processors and growers of workers in, 55, 55 n.186</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>use of braceros in, 53-54 n.179</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>workers in as employees, 273</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>workers in shifting to pickle picking in Midwest, 228</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Surplus value: relationship between absolute and relative production of, 194-95</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sutherland, George (U.S. Supreme Court justice): understanding of minimum wage of, 120-23</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sweating, 28</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>purpose of minimum wage laws to suppress, 95-96</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sweatshop agriculture, 4 n.9, 20-26</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Taft, Robert: remarks by on minimum wage in Senate, 120 n.77</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Taft, William (Chief Justice, U.S. Supreme Court): understanding of purpose of minimum wage of, 110-11, 120</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Taft-Hartley Act: as repealing NLRB v. Hearst, 189</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Taylorism, 193</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Temporary foreign workers, 287, 288 n.41</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA): racist practices of, 151</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Texas:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>anti-enticement statutes in, 41</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>as source of pickle harvesters in Midwest, 228, 241</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>farm labor contractor laws of, 41-42</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>proprietary attitudes of farm employers toward migrants in, 91 n.93</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Texas Citrus &amp; Vegetable Growers &amp; Shippers Association: proprietary views of on Texas migrants, 284 n.30</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Texas Minimum Wage Act, 295</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Texas Rural Legal Aid, ix</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Third World: as source of migrants in U.S., 16, 42, 45, 276</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thirteenth Amendment, 198 n.79</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thomas, Elbert: ambitious proposal by of programs for migrants in Senate, 281 n.21</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thomas, Robert: critique by of model of migrants as unskilled casual labor, 4 n.9, 6 n.14</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thompson, E.P.: on paternalism, 69-70</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Transaction costs:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>as determinant of vertical integration, 204-206</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>as insignificant in employment of migrants, 205-206</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Transportation: of migrants, 6-8, 90-91, 293</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Truck Act: test of employment relationship under, 187</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Unconscionability:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>doctrine of as applied to wages, 69</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Index

n.17, 299-301
minimum wage laws and, 99 use of in German Civil Code, 300
Unemployment compensation statutes: test of employment relationship under, 261 n.175
Uniform Commercial Code (UCC), 299
United Automobile Workers (UAW): position of on social security, 67 n.9
United Citrus Workers of Florida, 140
United Farm Workers (UFW), 118, 219, 255, 272
U.S. Bureau of the Census (BOC): description by of sharecroppers, 227 U.S. Department of Agriculture (USD A): biased administration by of Sugar Act in favor of employers, 56-58 cultivation by of ideological fiction of agricultural ladder, 163-64 U.S. Department of Labor (DOL): commitment of enforcement officials of, 288 disregard by of employers' labeling of workers' status, 250 enforcement policy of as inefficiently focused on crew leaders rather than agricultural employers errors of in litigating Brandel, 235-36 failure by to enforce laws on behalf of sugar cane cutters, 288 n.41 litigation by of issue of sharecropping, 263 on exclusion of farm workers from overtime provision of FLSA, 289-90 policy of on criminal prosecution of violators of FLSA & AWPA, 296-97 position on exemption of small farm employers from FLSA, 293 views of on sharecroppers' status as employees, 225 U.S. Farm Security Administration (FSA): accommodation by of southern racism, 150-51 unsuccessful attempt by to establish domestic farm labor standards during World War II, 47-49
U.S. Forest Service: as sweatshop employer of migrant tree planters, 37-38 n.121
U.S. Government: as sweatshop employer of migrant tree planters, 37
U.S. Resettlement Administration, 131
U.S. Supreme Court: as upholding paternalistic statute in 19th century, 89 development of concept of employee by, 186-90 on unwaivability of FLSA rights, 250
United States Sugar Corp., 19
Upjohn Co.: as sweatshop employer of migrant detasslers, xvi, 37
Vega v. Gasper, 4
Vertical integration: as applied to migrants, 204-206, 213-14 as distinguished from contracting, 202-206 as reducing transaction costs, 204-206 Vicarious liability: evolution of conceptualization of employment relationship under, 183-84 inappropriateness of employment relationship under for modern social-welfare legislation, 268-69 integration of employees into employers' business as criterion of employment relationship under, 183-84 relative skill of parties as criterion of employment relationship under, 183-84 Vlasic Foods: as sweatshop employer of pickle pickers, 237, 265-66
Voluntarism, 67-68
Wage-chiseling, 78-79, 83
Wage theft, 296-98
Wages: and Speenhamland subsidies differences in between white and black farm workers in South in 1930s, 173-74, 174 n.165 huge gap in agricultural wages between North and South in 1930s, 171-75 methodological flaws in collection of data on in agriculture in 1930s, 172, n.160, 173-74 nn.163-64
Ricardian-Marxist conception of, 122
Wagner-Peyser Act, 287 n.39
Wall Street Journal: position of on FLSA, xviii
Wallace, Henry A. (Sec'y of Agric. in New Deal): accommodation of southern planters as against sharecrovers, 143-44, 150
Wallerstein, Immanuel: on Speenhamland system, 68 n.15
Walsh, David: remarks by in Senate on purpose of FLSA, 77, 98
Warren County, Ga., 159
Watts, John: remarks on employment status of sharecroppers in House, 222-24
Webb, Beatrice (Potter): on labor contractors, 27 on sweating system, 27
Webb, Sidney: on purpose of mandatory minimum wage, 97 n.6, 99 n.15 Weber, Max:
on migrant agricultural workers' housing as analogous to slave barracks, 35-36 n.113 on sale of labor as forced by whip of hunger, 208 Weitzman, Martin: on revenue sharing labor contracts, 220 n.19
Welfare state, 65, 71-72
Wells, Miriam, 249-56, 258-64, 272
West Coast Hotel Co. v. Parrish, 96
Weyerhaeuser Co.: as sweatshop employer of migrant tree planters, xvi, 37
Wheat harvesters: differences between and other migrant agricultural workers, 11-13
White supremacy: control of New Deal congressional committees by, 130 political-economic impact of on farm workers in South, 130-32
Wickard, Claude (Sec'y of Agriculture): unsuccessful effort to establish anti-agricultural-exceptionalist labor standards during World War II, 48, 49 n.166
Wilcox, J. Mark: racist opposition of to FLSA in House, 144
Williamson, Oliver: on migrants, 212 n.121
Williston, Samuel: on reason for sequence of payment and performance in labor contracts, 297 n.75
Wisconsin; pickle picking in, 243-48 Workers' compensation:
control test of employment relationship under, 185, 265-66 employment relationship under as peculiarly subject to use of economic-reality-of-class-poverty test, 268-70 Working class:
free rider problem and, 73-74 relation between and state regarding protective legislation, 66-69, 76-77 use of state-coercion by vis-à-vis fractions of working class, 67 Works Progress Administration (WPA):
manipulation by of relief rolls for benefit of southern plantation owners, 152-53, 159
Wright, Gavin: on migrants as proletariat, 276
Yarborough, Ralph: remarks by on employment status of sharecroppers in Senate, 224