State Historical Society—Annual Meeting
The Annual Meeting of the State Historical Society of Iowa was held in the State University Building, at Iowa City, on Tuesday Evening, Dec. 5th, 1865. It was the largest meeting the Society has held since its organization. The minutes of the previous Annual Meeting, a synopsis of the Biennial Report of the Executive Officers of the Society to the Governor and General Assembly, and the Treasurer’s Report, were read. After the election of new members, the following gentlemen were selected as officers for the ensuing year:

President—Hon. F. H. Lee.
Corresponding Secretary—F. Lloyd.
Recording Secretary—S. E. Paine.
Treasurer—H. S. Welton.
Librarian—C. F. Clarke.

The following statement embodied in the Treasurer’s Report, shows the amount of money received and expended during the two years ending Dec. 1st, 1865:

ANECDOTE OF GENERAL GRANT AND BISHOP GENERAL POLK.

While the General was in command of the post of Cairo, Bishop General Polk, General Pillow, and General Frank Cheatam, of the rebel army, were at Columbus, Kentucky. Flags of truce were occasionally sent back and forth, between the two places, and the opposing Generals were generally present. After the conclusion of business, it was frequently the case that wine would be brought forth and toasts drank at parting. On one occasion General Polk proposed a toast which he said, all could drink. Those present filled their glasses, and he gave, "To General George Washington." As he paused purposely, at the end of the name, the company commenced to drink, when he added, "the first rebel." General Grant had his glass nearly finished by that time, and it was no use to stop; but he exclaimed, "That was scarcely fair, General; but I will be even with you some day." The
