At the leading edge of arts criticism and theory today, OCTOBER focuses critical attention on the entire range of contemporary cultural practices. It considers the interrelationships among the arts—film, painting, photography, music, dance, performance, sculpture, literature—as well as their social and political contexts. Original, innovative, provocative, each issue of OCTOBER presents the most current and most significant texts by and about leading contemporary artists, scholars, and critics, both here and abroad.

Enrich your knowledge of the most important issues in the contemporary arts—subscribe today to OCTOBER!

Dada Spectrum presents the most comprehensive inquiry into the nature and position of Dada within the avant garde movements of the twentieth century. Interdisciplinary in nature the essays analyze the revolution in film, typography, literature, and visual arts. The contributors, well-known in the field, present a unique diversity of perspectives and approaches to the Dada movement.
