Iowa City, Iowa 52242
16 / 1: Celebrating Fifty Years of the Writers’ Workshop. This issue features new work—seven stories, thirty-nine poems, and a review—by thirty-four writers spanning the Workshop’s entire history. Donald Justice, Robert Coover, Gail Godwin, Robin Behn, and many more.

16 / 2: Remember “Cooley & Kedney” in 14 / 1? Read another long story, an epistolary story, by Peter Nelson. Poems, also, by Robert Wrigley, Jane Kenyon, Carol Potter, Margaret Gibson, and Gregory Djanikian; and more essays and stories, one isn’t always sure which is which, by Tim McGinnis, Frank Allen, Donald Hall, Cheryl Dragel, and several others.

16 / 3: A Special Issue for H.D.’s Centennial Year. Featuring her letters from two world wars, to John Cournos (WWI) and Silvia Dobson (WWII), her unpublished “Some Notes on Recent Writing,” and the missing chapter of The Gift, “The Fortune Teller.” Reminiscences by H.D.’s daughter, Perdita Schaffner, and her biographer, Barbara Guest; essays by Rachel Blau DuPlessis, Susan Friedman, Paul Smith, and Louis Silverstein; poem by Jane Augustine, Kathleen Frazer, Susan Howe, Frances Jaffer, Alicia Ostriker, and Edith Walden. And more. Adalaide Morris, Guest Editor.
WALT WHITMAN
QUARTERLY REVIEW

Edited by Ed Folsom, University of Iowa, and William White, Oakland University

— WWQR features unpublished letters and documents written by Whitman, critical essays dealing with Whitman’s work, thorough reviews of Whitman-related books, an ongoing current bibliography, and more . . .

— The editors invite submissions on Whitman’s poetry and prose, on his influence on modern and contemporary writers, and on his relationship to American culture.

— Recent issues have included Hank Lazer on Whitman and Louis Simpson, C. Carroll Hollis on rhetoric, elocution, and voice in Leaves of Grass, James Perrin Warren on Whitman as a Ghostwriter, Arthur Geffen on Whitman and the Brooklyn Bridge, Joseph Benevento on Whitman and Borges, Leonard Prager on Whitman in Yiddish, and Jean Schwind on Whitman and Van Gogh.

— Coming this year: a special issue devoted to all known photographs of Whitman, the most photographed poet of the 19th century.

“For critical essays, reprinted primary documents, and continuing bibliography, this is the first place to turn for Whitman information and interpretation.” — Choice

Subscriptions are $10 for individuals, $12 for institutions. Make checks payable to WWQR and mail to WWQR, 308 EPB, The University of Iowa, Iowa City, IA 52242.
The international quarterly devoted to the study of the medieval English and Continental mystics, their place in the continuum of Western Christian mysticism, and their interaction with other mystical traditions.

Both scholarly and informative, MQ includes articles, book reviews, reader inquiries, an annotated current bibliography, and reports on research in progress.

The ninety-four sessions of the meeting will include:

- announcement of the first Annual M/MLA Book Award winner
- lectures by Cleanth Brooks (sponsored by the Univ. of Illinois/Chicago) and Denis Donoghue (sponsored by Northwestern University)
- a screening of Altman's Come Back to the 5 and Dime, Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean
- forums on American Sign Language Dialects, Latin Narratives and Poetry, Canadian Literature, and more

The M/MLA ANNUAL MEETING offers something special. Papers aren't read aloud; they're discussed. Authors submit papers in time for M/MLA to distribute them to meeting registrants in advance. Our convention format creates an optimum environment for sharing new ideas and exchanging substantive points of view.

Members will receive program information and registration materials in September. Annual dues for membership in the Association, which includes subscription to The Journal of the M/MLA and the Newsletter, are $15.00 for full professors, associate professors, and administrative personnel; $12.00 for assistant professors, instructors, and school teachers; $8.00 for students, retired, and unemployed persons. Joint memberships are $20.00. To register and/or apply for membership, write to: Executive Director, M/MLA, 423 English/Philosophy Building, The University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa 52242.
