Background
- Project focus is making primary sources accessible to the public.
- Darling cartoons and website provide a stable backing for the continuation of the project.
  - Jay N. Darling worked for the Register from 1906 to 1949.
- My focus is to put cartoons of three other Des Moines Register cartoonists online.
  - Tom Carlisle
    - Worked for the Register as Darling’s assistant, then after Darling’s retirement 1949 to 1953.
  - Frank Miller
  - Brian Duffy
    - Worked for the Register from 1983 to 2008.

Method
- Choose Cartoons
  - Initial target 500 per cartoonist
- Focus on:
  - World Events
  - Politics (local, state and national)
  - Popular Culture
  - Local Activities
- Scan
  - High resolution, archival quality
- Edit
  - Resize for web display
- Upload
  - Publish to web with ContentDM Software

Objective
- Cartoons simplify problems facing the world.
- They give a better view of what issues are important in the time period.
- Provide primary resources to researchers, teachers, students.
- Highlight important aspects in Iowa history shown in these cartoons.

The Des Moines Register