SALAM’S GRANDFATHER
How do you know that he'll be happy when I come to the party?

AHMED
Mum told me that you were friends.

Ahmed takes the rifle and leaves the shop. In the meantime, the grandfather picks up the phone and calls some-one.

ISAAC…

Isaac looks behind him.

INT- TEL AVIV HOSPITAL- THE DOCTOR'S OFFICE- AFTERNOON

Isaac sits in a chair holding the football in his hands and moves it around now and then. The doctor closes the office door and sits facing Isaac. The doctor holds several x-rays.

THE DOCTOR

"Isaac…you know that we’ve been friends since college and so I’m going to be frank with you…Cohen's condition is very critical…He will not be able to live for more than ten days…his heart is very weak…I can’t do anything if we don’t get a new heart…and you know that we do not have enough time for that…I promise you though, that I'll try to keep him alive for the longest time possible….you have my word on that."

ISAAC

Are sure of what you're saying...

All the lab tests confirm this…I didn’t want to tell his mother until you arrived….

The wireless radio cuts off their conversation.

THE WIRELESS

…Isaac, you must go to the southern district immediately…over…

INT- TEL AVIV HOSPITAL- INTENSIVE CARE UNIT- AFTERNOON
Isaac sits next to Eve and stares at the floor. Cohen's hand is in his mother's hand. Eve catches Isaac's attention. Cohen opens his eyes slowly. Isaac smiles. Eve strokes Cohen's cheek with her hand. Isaac gets up and brings the football and puts it beside Cohen.

ISAAC
I've bought you your favourite football. It'll only be a few days and you'll catch up with your team. They're all waiting for you. They won't play the match until you're with them.

Cohen holds Isaac's hand and smiles. Eve looks at Isaac in bewilderment.

ISAAC (CONT'D)
I have to go now.

Isaac leaves the room. Eve leaves the room after she kisses Cohen. She closes the door of the room behind her.

INT- TEL AVIV HOSPITAL- HOSPITAL CORRIDOR- AFTERNOON

Are you insane?! How could you say that to Cohen when you know that it's impossible for him to get well before the next match....

Isaac turns his face to her and she sees the traces of tears on his face. Isaac looks at her in silence. Eve hugs him.

EVE (CONT'D)
What did the doctor say?!

INT- THE VILLAGE- THE HEADMASTER'S OFFICE- AFTERNOON
Ahmed's mother and Salam's mother sit in the headmaster's office. The headmaster and the Arabic language teacher enter the office. The Arabic language teacher takes a book out of his briefcase and passes it to Salam's mother.

THE TEACHER
Can you please open the book on page five?

Salam's mother takes the book. She opens the book on the requested page.

THE HEADMASTER
Do you know this story?
MARIAM
Of course I know it...this is the collection of stories that Salam’s uncle wrote.

THE HEADMASTER
Salam read this story in front of the class on the basis that she wrote it!

THE TEACHER
And her attitude is becoming more rebellious. Yesterday, she drow this .. to her classmate, Ahmed.

Mariam takes the little paper from the headmaster's hand while Ahmad's mother looks at her.

THE HEADMASTER TO AHMAD'S MOTHER
And Ahmed suffers from adaptation problems with his classmates.

THE HEADMASTER
I asked both of you to come together because Ahmed and Salam ran off from school before the school day ended.

INT. SCHOOL BUILDING. AFTERNOON
A door opens and Ahmed's mother steps into the hallway. After a moment, Mariam steps out of the door. Seeing Ahmed's mother, she chases after her.

MARIAM
Om Ahmed--

Ahmed's mother turns around angrily.

AHMED'S MOTHER
Mariam, keep your daughter away from Ahmed, or I'll have him transferred to another school. We've had enough history happen!

MARIAM
What's happened? Tell me. I have been waiting five years for someone to tell me what happened!

AHMED'S MOTHER
Ask your husband what happened!

MARIAM
Khaled? In all the years he spent in prison, he only allowed me to visit him once... And it was for a divorce. He told me to start my life over without him. When he was released--

AHMED'S MOTHER
When your husband comes home from being tortured with only one eye, and then you come home with his medicine and find him lying in a pool of blood, then you will respect what I am asking from you. I lost one. I refuse to lose another. All I ask from you is to keep your daughter away from my son.

Ahmed's mother walks away and leaves Mariam alone in the hallway.

FADE TO BLACK.

INT. SALAM'S KITCHEN- NIGHT

The sound of FOOD COOKING on the stove is heard. Majid and Salam sit at the dinner table, waiting for the arrival of the food.

MARIAM
Salam, darling, how's school?

SALAM
Fine...

MARIAM (O.S.)
What do you think of the stories that Uncle wrote?

SALAM
Well... there are some of them that are nice and others that are normal.

Salam looks at the chicken on the table and then looks at Majid in question. Majid shakes his head from side to side.

MARIAM (O.S.)
What was your favorite story?

SALAM
I don't remember. When I read it again sometime I'll tell you.

MARIAM (O.S.)
I have the book. After dinner we're going to read together. Ok?

Mariam walks back into the room holding a plate of steaming potatoes. Placing it on the table, she begins cutting the chicken and serving it onto the children's plates.

MARIAM (CONT'D)
You haven't told me... How was school today? Do you have any special friends?

Mariam begins to eat while Majid and Salam remain silent.

MARIAM (CONT'D)
Why aren't you eating?

Majid looks at Salam.

SALAM
Mum, where did he get you that chicken from?

MARIAM
I found it in the courtyard while I was hanging up the laundry.

Salam pushes away her plate of food. Majid does the same.

MARIAM (CONT'D)
What's the matter with you? Why don't you dig in? it will go cold.

Salam is silent.

MARIAM (CONT'D)
It's wrong that one should refuse the blessing that is given to one.

MARIAM (CONT'D)
Salam, you're not leaving this table until you've finished your plate!

After a lapse of time, we see Salam looking at her plate in silence; facing her is Majid who is sleeping with his head on the table. Salam looks in the direction of her mother's room. She sees Khaled standing in front of the room then heinters the room. After a few moments, Mariam comes out of her room, yawning. Khaled then comes out and stands in the corridor. Mariam lifts Majid gently and tenderly. Mariam leaves holding Majid and then returns to the kitchen.
MARIAM (CONT’D)
I'm sorry, darling…I fell asleep. You go off to your room to bed and in the morning everything will be right as rain…

Salam gets up and moves towards her room. She looks behind her and then sees her mother going into her room without noticing Khaled’s presence in the corridor. Khaled stares at Salam, smiling. He blows her a kiss with his hand. Salam smiles.

AN OLD WOMAN in her sixties passes by, holding a small gas stove. The old woman comes and sits next to Khaled’s mother setting the stove on the ground.

Khaled’s mother takes some sage out from a small bag and puts it into the teapot. Taking the tea off of the fire, she pours some for herself and her guest and sets the teapot back on the fire.

KHALED'S MOTHER
Tea tastes better heated by firewood…Good bless Khaled for bringing me some sage.

OLD WOMAN
May God bring his mind back.

Khaled’s mother looks at the old woman angrily. She takes the stove and hands it back to the old woman in a gesture to leave.

KHALED'S MOTHER
Take it with you. I know that you don't have another one and there’s ten of you in the house... you need it more than us.

INT- ISRAELI JEEP CAR- NIGHT
The jeep is driving along one of the roads. Davie holds his rifle in one hand, in a military car that is driving along one of the village roads, and a radio in the other.

THE SPORTS PRESENTER IN HEBREW.
It seems like our national team is still in control of the match, in spite of its losing a goal to Zidane's head butt...but the changes the coach has made, have increased the attacks of our team and this has made it possible for them to level things if they keep playing as they are presently...

Isaac is sitting in the backseat of the Jeep, looking outside the car.

INT- DALIA'S HOUSE- THE LIVING ROOM- EVENING

Malek is watching the French-Israeli match, smiling. Malek gets up and brings pile of Palestinian flags and several large pictures of Zidane and puts them on the table in front of him.

THE SPORTS PRESENTER IN ARABIC
We're only a few minutes away from the end of the match, upon which the Israeli team will get the taste of failure, signed by Zidane, whose goal will fill the hearts of worldwide supporting spectators with happiness and especially those of the Arab spectators who shall celebrate for a long time, this historic victory....

EXT- IN FRONT OF DALIA'S HOUSE- EVENING

INT-DALIA'S APARTMENT- THE LIVING ROOM- EVENING

The three enter the flat as Malek is sitting in front of the television, holding a cigarette. The voice of the Arabic sports presenter fills the room. Davie aims his rifle at Malek, who remains calm.

THE ARABIC SPORTS PRESENTER.
The eyes of millions of spectators are awaiting the sound of the whistle...it seems that the Israeli team has gotten a corner kick ...the players of the French team have retreated to the defence section while the Israeli team has increased their presence in the French penalty area.

Davie arrests Malek as the third soldier keeps his rifle aimed at Malek. The sports presenter is silent. Davie notices the absence of the presenter’s voice and he looks at the television. A smile appears on his face. Davie finishes handcuffing Malek and quickly looks around the room for something until he finds the remote control on the floor. He changes the channel until we hear the loud voice of the Israeli presenter.

THE SPORTS PRESENTER IN HEBREW
A football miracle….not a more beautiful goal! This goal is going to go down in Israeli football history….

She moves closer to him but he moves his body away from her and walks away from her. Mariam follows him and walks beside him.

MARIAM
Khaled, is that it, have you forgotten all of our memories….do you remember when Salam was born….Khaled! Look at me when I’m talking to you…

Mariam grasps his hand and stands in front of him.

MARIAM (CONT’D)
Do you remember when you gave me this dress after we had Salam….

Khaled looks at her and then continues to walk.

MARIAM (CONT’D)
Khaled! Salam needs you at her side… you have to see her and talk to her. Her problems are growing at school…and I can’t deal with her by myself…
Khaled stops walking.

MARIAM (CONT'D)
....I'm going to tell her that you're going to see her in the same place where we met the first time...

INT- ABU OMAR'S MECHANICS WORKSHOP- MORNING

Abu Omar is eating with his friend inside the workshop. His friend is holding a pen and book, which he is looking at as he eats.

ABU OMAR'S FRIEND
The oil is not going to last us two days. We need another two gallons...or the Haj Fadhel's car and a motor head for Sheikh Abdul Rahman's car...

ABU OMAR
So, if we leave in an hour's time, how long do you think it'll take us to get there?

Abu Omar's friend begins to write in the book as Omar's father holds a cup of tea. He raises it to drink but discovers that it is empty. He looks at the car that is parked in front of the shop.

ABU OMAR (CONT'D)
Omar, put down what you're doing and go and get us two cups of tea from the cafeteria...and don't be late because I'm going to go with your Uncle Najeeb to Ramallah to get some things.

Omar comes out from underneath one of the cars and his clothes are stained with oil. Omar leaves the workshop.

ABU OMAR'S FRIEND
If we take the mountain road, it'll take us more than half an hour to get there!

ABU OMAR
Well, you know that they've closed it... and do you think that our car can cross the mountain roads with the load that we're going to bring back from over there...

Abu Omar's friend looks at the book.

ABU OMAR'S FRIEND
If we take the main road...count with your hands...one...two...five...six...six checkpoints...say it'll take us two hours to get through each checkpoint...that means twelve hours through each checkpoint in addition to the half an hour trip for the way....that's twelve and a half hours...

Hanna arrives at the workshop with a letter in his hand.

HANNA
Hello, Uncle...can I see Omar?

Abu Omar looks at Hanna and continues talking to his friend.

ABU OMAR
Put down another two hours at the corner village checkpoint. There's a fucked up soldier there...every time he sees me he clams up and throws down my papers until he feels like letting me through...just in case, get some pillows and a couple of quilts because I expect we'll be spending the night there today.

Omar's father sees the letter in Hanna's hand.

ABU OMAR (CONT'D)
Omar's not here. If you want to wait for him then pull up a chair from inside.

HANNA
When do you expect he'll be back?

ABU OMAR
I don't know when he'll be back but he might be late.

Hanna looks at his watch.

HANNA
Uncle, can I leave something for him?

ABU OMAR
If you want to leave him something then put it beside his bag, inside the room.

Hanna goes inside. He puts the letter in Omar's bag and leaves. Abu Omar goes inside the workshop and then returns to his friend, holding the letter. He sits beside his friend. He opens the letter and begins to read it.

"Hello….until now, I still don't know your name so that I can call you by it…anyway, you can tell me another time… what do you say that I see you after a half hour at the village shop… Oh, and if you're afraid of my brother, don't worry! The Israelis arrested him…. there'll be no beating… Dalia."

Abo Omar rips up the letter. His friend takes his glass of water and goes to drink, but finds it empty. Standing up, he leaves Abo Omar and walks over to a large clay vat of water.

Refilling his glass his eyes wander around the room. He spots Abo Omar’s coat laying on the table. A photograph is falling out of the pocket.

ABU OMAR (O.S.) (CON'T)

Corrupt generation…where are her parents...as is we don’t have enough problems…my dear friend, please tell me how am I supposed to deal with this boy?

Walking over to the coat, he takes out the photograph and looks at it. It is the picture Abo Omar took from his son’s bedroom earlier. An old photograph of Abo Omar and his wife with a small child.

Sliding the photograph back into the jacket pocket, he takes his glass of water and towards Abu Omar. He begins staring at Abu Omar.

ABU OMAR (CONT'D)

I've talking to him...beating and I've skinned him alive...all of this hasn't done anything to him...this generation is exactly like that thing you've got on your foot!

ABU OMAR'S FRIEND

Abu Omar, what do you think about finding a respectable woman to help you out…do you know Haj Abu Mariam?

ABU OMAR'S FRIEND (CONT'D)

The owner of the village shop?

ABU OMAR'S FRIEND (CONT'D)

Once he told me that he's looking for a respectable groom for his daughter…propose to her! Where are they going to find some one better than you?

ABU OMAR

But you know my situation! Where am I going to live with her?
ABU OMAR’S FRIEND
Don’t worry about that in particular. She has a house in her name.

ABU OMAR
Don’t tell me she’s that madman’s ex-wife?!

ABU OMAR’S FRIEND
The madman that you’re talking about is said to have lost his mind in prison while he was defending his country!

ABU OMAR
He never entered a mosque…that means everything that he is doing is for nothing.

ABU OMAR’S FRIEND
Do you remember those college days when Mariam had all those guys swooning over her…she was one of Oum Omar’s best friends.

ABU OMAR
Ah, those wonderful days… I remember! You know, you have a point, the girl really is pretty…but she’s not wearing the veil!

ABU OMAR’S FRIEND
You say the word and leave the rest to me…maybe her father will convince her to wear the veil and shield her.

EXT. OLIVE GROVE-- MORNING

Naem runs between the olive trees with a live sheep in his arms. Stopping behind an olive tree, he sets down the sheep breathing heavily. Turning around he looks back in the direction he came from to make sure that no-one is watching.

Picking the sheep back up, he runs off down the path.

EXT. KHALED'S HOUSE-- MORNING

Khaled is sitting on his bed smoking a cigarette. Naem arrives carrying the sheep in his arms, and Khaled stares at him in silence.

Naem ties up the sheep and stares at it.

NAEM
What are you looking at? Do you think that I’m not good enough? You’ll have a better life here with uncle
Khaled. I'm really sick of going everyday to bring the milk. Stay here and have fun until I take you home with me.

INT- SALAM'S GRANDFATHER'S SHOP- MORNING

The grandfather takes money from one of the customers and puts it in the drawer. Abu Omar and Abu Omar's friend enter the shop as the customer leaves.

ABU OMAR'S FRIEND
Hello, Abu Mariam… we're here to speak to you about a certain matter...

THE GRANDFATHER
Welcome…please sit down...

The grandfather takes two chairs and goes outside the shop.

EXT- SALAM'S GRANDFATHER'S SHOP- MORNING

The grandfather comes out of the shop holding the two chairs and puts them next to his chair. Abu Omar and his friend follow him and sit down. He pours them coffee and Abu Omar and his friend take it and put it on the table without drinking it.

ABU OMAR'S FRIEND
Abu Mariam…we're here to talk to you about Mariam…you know Abu Omar, thank God, his reputation is like that of gold in the neighbourhood and he'd like to ask for your daughter Mariam's hand in marriage...

SALAM'S GRANDFATHER
Drink your coffee…Inshallah everything will be alright...

Abu Omar looks at his friend.

ABU OMAR'S FRIEND
Abu Mariam…Abu Omar has a small request…well, it's about the veil…Abu Omar requests that Mariam wears the veil.

SALAM'S GRANDFATHER
Well, you know that the only person that has a say in this matter is Mariam…I promise you that I'll give her the full picture.
Mariam arrives at the shop with Majed. Abu Omar looks at Mariam, smiling. Leaning over to Majed, he kissed his cheek. Majed hides behind his mother and wipes his wet cheek with his sleeve.

Mariam, say hello to gentlemen...Abu Omar...Abu Raed.

MARIAM
Welcome...

Mariam enters the shop.

INT- SALAM'S GRANDFATHER'S SHOP- MORNING

Mariam takes a bag of rice from the shelf and puts it on the counter. Majed takes the rice and puts it in a plastic bag. Salam's grandfather enters the shop.

SALAM'S GRANDFATHER
Mariam, Abu Omar asked for your hand in marriage just a little while ago.

MARIAM
I'll think about it....

SALAM'S GRANDFATHER
Daughter, it's not good to live alone. You need a man to take care of you and your children.

Mariam goes to another shelf and picks up a tin of coffee and puts it on the counter. Majed takes the coffee and puts it in the same plastic bag with the rice. Reaching quickly for some candy, he slides that into the bag as well.

SALAM'S GRANDFATHER
He's asked that you wear the veil...

MARIAM
Tell him I'm not going to think about it...that's all I need Dad, someone at this age telling me what I can and cannot do...

Salam's grandfather smiles.

EXT-IN FRONT OF OMAR'S FATHER'S WORKSHOP-NOON.

Dalia stands on the road opposite Omar's father's workshop. She sees Omar standing beside a car whose bonnet is open. A bearded man of fifty stands beside the car.
INT- OMAR'S FATHER'S WORKSHOP- NOON

Omar closes the bonnet of one of the cars and wipes his hands on a piece of cloth in his hand. The bearded man takes out his wallet. He moves closer to Omar.

THE SHEIKH
What do you think about dropping in on us at the mosque after the sunset prayers... your father told me about you and I'd like to have you with the brothers at the mosque...

OMAR
Three hundred shekels please...

The Sheikh takes out some cash and hands it to Omar. The Sheikh looks at Omar after his smile disappears.

THE SHEIKH
The day that God guides you, you'll find our hearts open to you and we'll be waiting for you...

Omar takes the money as the bearded man gets into his car and leaves the workshop. Omar takes out the accounting book out of the drawer. He writes in the book and puts it back in the drawer. He puts the money in his wallet. He turns around and is surprised to find Dalia standing in front of him.

DALIA
Why didn't you come?

Omar wipes the oil from his face and looks outside the shop to the right and then to the left.

OMAR
What brings you here?

DALIA
Don't you want to see me?!

OMAR
My father might come here at any moment.

Dalia looks at Omar angrily and then leaves the shop. Omar shakes his head and then goes out to the door of the shop after a few moments.

OMAR (CONT'D)
What do you think about having lunch at the house today... my father's going to Ramallah after a little while.

Dalia continues walking, a smile appears on her face.
INT- ABU TALAL’S HOUSE- THE LIVING ROOM- NOON

Salam’s grandfather and Ahmed sit in the living room. Abu Talal enters holding a tray of coffee.

    ABU TALAL
    Welcome…Welcome…

Abu Talal serves the coffee and then sits in silence. He looks at the grandfather.

    THE GRANDFATHER
    Ah, Abu Talal…Tell us about the story of the cave…

    ABU TALAL
    Excuse me for just one minute…I’ll be right back…

Abu Talal leaves.

INT- ABU TALAL’S HOUSE- THE KITCHEN- NOON

Abu Talal opens the top door of the fridge. He takes out a small bottle of cognac. He opens it and drinks half of the bottle in one gulp. He then returns it to the fridge. He walks until he reaches the kitchen door. He stands for a few moments and then goes back to the fridge. He opens it and takes out the bottle of cognac. He drinks it all. He closes it and throws it in the dustbin.

INT- ABU TALAL’S HOUSE- THE LIVING ROOM- NOON

Abu Talal goes back to the living room and sits in his place. He takes out a cigarette and lights it. He inhales deeply. He looks at the grandfather and at Ahmed and offers them a cigarette as well.

    THE GRANDFATHER
    Abu Talal, you know that I don’t smoke! Ah, Abu Talal, tell me about Abu Ahmed. I told Ahmed that you were on the same Jihadiyah group…

    ABU TALAL
    God preserve you boys….it’s an honour….

Abu Talal takes a sip of his coffee and scratches his nose with his finger.

    ABU TALAL (CONT’D)
    No…that was nothing…it was a simple operation…there was a patrol standing on the pasture and your father and I had orders to blow it up….they told us that there were two Israelis…we attacked them…and found out that there were seven of them. Imagine, seven…I was surprised at first but I told myself that I had to be a man or else I was done for…I
aimed the clachan at them and they all became pussies and threw down their arms...

SALAM’S GRANDFATHER
Abu Talal, I came to hear about Abu Ahmed not about you! What did Abu Ahmed do on that day?!

ABU TALAL
Just a minute, I’m getting there...when they all turned into pussies, Abu Ahmed went up to them and tied them all up...we then thought about where we were going to put them! What a problem...if we took a taxi then everybody would have known and we would have become heroes...but we were doing this work for God and not for anybody else...anyway, we drove them between the mountains and blew them to pieces. In any case, one week after the operation a spy, the bastard, reported your father...he was put in prison for good.

AHMED
But no-one told me that my father was put in prison!

The grandfather looks at Abu Talal angrily.

ABU TALAL
Hold on, I’m getting there...after your father was in prison for two weeks, he received an order from his people to carry out a military operation...so he killed two guards and escaped, and on that day he carried out the big operation in Tel Aviv...God rest your soul in peace, my dear friend Abu Ahmed...you’ll surely go to heaven for everything that you have done for your country.

AHMED
But why didn’t they arrest you with him?!. Didn’t you say that you both carried out the operation together?

ABU TALAL
Son, what are you saying! Your father’s a man and if they had to cut open his throat, he wouldn’t have revealed the names of his friends. Do you think that we had any kind of friendship?!

INT- IN FRONT OF ABU TALAL’S HOUSE’S FRONT DOOR- NOON

Ahmed walks out of the apartment door and Salam’s Grandfather follows behind him.
Ahmed, wait for me outside. I'll be right there... I just need to say a few words to your uncle.

Ahmed walks down the stairs as Abu Talal pokes his head out the door.

SALAM'S GRANDFATHER
God blast you! You almost disgraced us in front of the boy...seven soldiers??...if you had said two, one may have swallowed it...I'm going to pick you up at seven o'clock so that we can go to the boy's party...don't forget!

ABU TALAL
But Hajj, you know that I'm busy tonight!

SALAM'S GRANDFATHER
By the Virgin Mary, Abu Talal, if you don't come today, I'm going to tell on you to the boys...

ABU TALAL
Okay, I'll come...

Salam's grandfather leaves. Abu Talal closes the door.

INT- COHEN'S HOUSE- THE LIVING ROOM- NOON

INT- COHEN'S HOUSE- COHEN'S ROOM- NOON

Issac enters Cohen's room and sits amongst the toys, remembering the happy times that he spent with Cohen.

THE SOUND OF CHILDREN LAUGHING AND PLAYING is heard somewhere in Issac's mind.

INT. KHALED'S HOUSE-- AFTERNOON

A pair of scissors cuts a beard. Khaled, on a chair, sits in the middle of the living room wearing a white undershirt. A towel is wrapped around his neck. His mother is standing next to him cutting his beard. Khaled stares at his reflection in the mirror in front of him.
Son, I want you to be kinder to your daughter. You can't imagine how happy I am that you are going to see her after all this time. Take her with you...

Khaled's mother's voice fades away and the sound of a MACHINE GUN takes over. Khaled continues staring into the mirror.

EXT. A PALESTINIAN REFUGEE CAMP-- A FEW YEARS EARLIER

Black and White.

The sound of MACHINE GUNS continue. Khaled, younger and stronger, holds a gun in his hand. He has no beard. In front of him is a PALESTINIAN MAN. Behind him, Ahmed's father. They are all holding guns.

The three men move slowly along the side of the wall until they arrive in a small corner. Khaled looks around the corner and see several Israeli soldiers on the other side.

KHALED

INT- OMAR'S HOUSE- THE LIVING ROOM- AFTERNOON

Omar sits on his chair at the dining table and in front of him is an empty chair. He looks at his wrist watch. He leaves the table. He returns the bunch of flowers beside the door. He takes off his shirt and throws it on the sofa and lies down on the sofa. The doorbell rings. Omar puts on his shirt on his way to the door. He opens the door as his shirt is still open. Dalia enters. Omar greets her coolly. Dalia takes out an old camera and gives it to Omar.

DALIA
I got help up as I was looking for the camera...I didn't know where my brother had hid it...

Dalia helps set the table. They have dinner. They laugh. Dalia clears some of the dishes from the table and leaves for the kitchen.

INT- OMAR'S HOUSE- THE KITCHEN- AFTERNOON

Dalia puts the dishes on a table in the kitchen. She opens the tap to wash the dishes. She takes the leftovers of the food to throw it in the rubbish bin. Dalia returns the remaining food onto the plate. She dries her hands on a piece of cloth and then puts her hand out towards the rubbish bin and takes out a torn up picture of a little girl. She puts the picture back together again. She looks at it as Omar arrives holding the plates in his hands. Dalia looks at Omar in astonishment.

What do you think about going out...? There's something that I'd like to show you...

EXT- OUTSKIRTS OF THE VILLAGE- THE OLIVE GROVE- AFTERNOON

OMAR
Come on, Dalia, my hands are beginning to hurt...don't be scared, I've been in here a thousand times...

Dalia enters through the barbed wire. She holds the wire with her hands. Omar passes through the wire. They walk through the olive trees until they reach a large olive tree...Omar stops and digs with his hands at the base of the tree and takes out an old box. He wipes the earth off the box. He opens it and takes out a piece of cloth.

I was born here under this tree...my mother was picking olives when she had me.

Dalia laughs and then tries to climb the tree. Omar helps her, climbs up himself and sits next to her. They then look at a large expanse of land planted with olive trees. Omar points to the land planted in front of him.

OMAR (CONT'D)
See all of this land...this is my father's and uncles' land. The Israeli army confiscated it ten years ago.

Omar walks over to his camera and starts taking pictures of Dalia.

DALIA
Why did they confiscate it?

OMAR
How should I know? They told us that it was for security reasons. They cut off a hundred and fifty olive trees and built in their place a military base and they confiscated the well and transferred the water to the colony. It was because of this that most of our trees died of thirst...after one month, my father grew his beard and became religiously committed...he opened a car mechanics workshop and the problems between him and my mother grew...

DALIA
Because of the money?

OMAR
Because of my mother's way of dressing...he said that she used to embarrass him in front of his religious friends.... He tried to make her wear the veil but she wouldn’t accept… then he gave her a choice between the veil and divorce…so she chose to get divorced…

Omar looks at Dalia and then descends from the tree. He takes the camera and starts to take several pictures of her.

ABU OMAR’S FRIEND
Hey man, what would have happened if you had picked up the paper off the ground and gave it to him…didn’t he say, pick up the paper and I’ll let you through the checkpoint…

ABU OMAR
I swear to God, if he was going to let me through the doors of heaven, I wouldn’t have picked up the paper off the floor…oh man, is there anything more degrading than this… he dropped the paper on purpose so that I would kneel before him…well, that’ll never happen…if I had wanted to kneel, I would’ve done so a long time ago..

ABU OMAR (CONT’D)
I promise you that I’m not going to get angry if you tell me what happened today at home!

OMAR
Nothing happened.

ABU OMAR
Okay, so can you explain where this came from?

Omar’s father takes out the napkin and outs it on the table, in front of Omar.

ABU OMAR (CONT’D)
Omar, tell me her name and where she lives because I will allow sin to take place in my house as long as I’m alive… and I’m going to speak to her family about this matter.

Omar is silent. Omar's father takes off his belt. He begins to beat Omar with the belt.

Ahmed enters the kitchen and drinks a glass of juice quickly. Salam gets up from her chair.

AHMED (CONT'D)
Mum, do you need anything before I go out?

AHMED'S MOTHER
God bless you son….just don't stay out late. I don't want to have to worry about you!
AHMED
No mum, don’t worry, I’m going to come back early… and besides mum, I’m a man now… don’t keep talking to me like this, as if I was little boy.

The mother smiles without Ahmed noticing. Ahmed kisses his mother’s hand.

The team players begin to warm up while Ahmed goes and sits beside Salam. Without making eye contact, he takes out his toy gun from his bag and starts to assemble it. He sits, watching the game, the rifle in his hand.

AHMED
I’m going to play in the second half...because I’m a professional. And professionals don't play except at the end of the match.

Ahmed takes out some plastic bullets and hands it to Salam. Then he hands her the gun.

AHMED (CONT’D)
Load the gun. I'm going to prepare the target.

Salam’s grandfather sees Naem sitting on a pavement, shaking the top part of his body and his gaze is empty. The grandfather takes Naem to his shop. The grandfather brings a glass of water and gives it to Naem. Naem drinks the water. The grandfather sits beside Naem on the pavement.

SALAM’S GRANDFATHER

They told me...God blast you, Abu Imad. And you, couldn't you find anyone apart from that filthy man to steal milk from?!

The grandfather is silent as he thinks of something.

SALAM’S GRANDFATHER (CONT’D)

Listen....
Naem looks at the grandfather for the first time without uttering a word.

...Do you know where Fouad Al Araj's olive trees are?

Naem nods his head in response.

After two hundred metres from those trees, you'll find the Abdullahs' house and its field...there, Salama herds his sheep in the mornings. Go there and milk as much as you can because Salama is always drunk, especially in the morning. But don't you tell anyone that I'm the one who told you about this...they also say that his ewes' milk can supply half the country...

EXT- THE VILLAGE MARKET- THE COFFEE SHOP- AFTERNOON

A giant barrier wall is being built in front of the village coffee shop.

Naem passes by Jaber and Abdullah as they sit at a table in the courtyard of the coffee shop. The rays of the sun begin to disappear gradually as the shadow of the barrier wall grow taller in the sky.

JABER
It's so hot! What harm would it do if one had a parasol over his head, or if we got a wall to stop the sun from getting to us....tell, me, do you see any customers walking into the shop?

Abdullah cranes his head towards the direction of the shop.

ABDULLAH
If there was anyone, they would have passed through here first.

The other half of the sun disappears from behind, as another shadow blocks off the other half of the rays shining from it.

JABER
What do you think they're doing.

Abdullah looks behind him as Jaber inhales the narghile and then returns it to Abdullah. Abdullah takes the narghile and inhales.

ABDULLAH
It looks as if they're building a bridge...

The shadow blocks off all of the sunshine.
EXT- IN FRONT OF SALAM'S GRANDFATHER'S SHOP-AFTERNOON

Salam's grandfather is standing when Salam passes by his shop. He bends over and looks into her eyes.

SALAM'S GRANDFATHER
What's the matter honey?! Is there anything disturbing you?!

SALAM
Grandpa? If I tell you my secret then it won't be a secret any more, right?

SALAM'S GRANDFATHER
No, that's not right….if you tell it to grandpa, then it'll definitely stay a secret!

Remember when I told you when a person is feeling very sad, then they must speak to their best friend? Aren't we friends my love?!

Salam throws herself in her grandfather's arms. She closes her eyes. The grandfather hugs her tenderly. He smiles and runs his hand over Salam's head. The grandfather returns from inside the shop holding a handful of rice in a small bag. He gives it to Salam who smiles and hugs her grandfather.
