THE WOMANLESS WEDDING.
CAST OF 80 LOCAL BUSINESSMEN, VALLEY JUNCTION, IOWA,
MARCH 24-26, 1926

Elizabeth McCracken

I think Harry J.
made Babe Who Runs the Tavern
and Babe made an ugly girl,
a big heap in cerise.
Under less cloth and more paint,
they halved up and married up at the Oddfellow’s over Keller’s Deli.
Small men wore big false beards;
big men turned lantern-jawed ladies;
some blacked their faces.
They all looked like cartoons—extcept Keller, who was sweet enough to be his own wife, and said so,
till the real missus showed up.
Only his knees gave him away,
big headlights, poking through the pink fringe of his dress.
No knees like that on any girl.
Except maybe his daughter,
who was seen later
at the party, prying the crown caps off bottles of homemade beer with her teeth.
