GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS OF STYLE

Essays: Place the title two inches below the top of the page, the author’s name two inches below the title, and the text two inches below the author’s name. The affiliation of the contributor follows the essay.

Notes, Book Reviews, Bibliographies: These are configured like essays, except the author’s name follows the work.

References: Follow The MLA Style Sheet, Second Edition. Mark references in the text with raised footnote numbers, not author-year citations in parentheses. Double-spaced endnotes should follow the essay on a new page headed “Notes.” Do not use Latin abbreviations for repeated citations. Do not condense the names of publishers or titles. Make references complete so that a bibliography is unnecessary. When citing journal articles, give the volume number of the journal followed by the issue date in parentheses, followed by a comma, followed by the page number(s)—e.g., Joann P. Krieg, “Whitman and Modern Dance,” Walt Whitman Quarterly Review 24 (Spring 2007), 208-209.

QUOTING AND CITING WALT WHITMAN’S WRITING

When quoting from individual editions of Leaves of Grass (the 1855, 1856, 1860, 1867, 1870-1871, 1881), please use the facsimiles available on The Walt Whitman Archive (www.whitmanarchive.org), and cite the edition, date, and page numbers, followed by “Available on the Walt Whitman Archive (www.whitmanarchive.org).” Do not list the URL of individual page images or the date accessed.

The standard edition of Whitman’s work is The Collected Writings of Walt Whitman, twenty-two volumes published by the New York University Press under the general editorship of Gay Wilson Allen and Sculley Bradley, and supplemented with volumes published by the University of Iowa Press and Peter Lang. Citations and quotations from Whitman’s writings should be keyed to the specific volumes in this edition whenever possible. The Library of America edition of Whitman’s Poetry and Prose is also acceptable.

After the initial citation, contributors should abbreviate the titles of the Collected Writings in the endnotes as follows:

EPF The Early Poems and Fiction, edited by Thomas L. Brasher (1963)

“This sterling collection of essays is well matched to its Whitmanian epigraph: ‘Past and present and future are not disjoined but joined.’ Their meeting point is reception, the myriad of ways that Leaves of Grass has been interpreted by readers from around the globe and across the generations or—in the words of Kirsten Silva Gruesz’s stunning closing essay—the ‘process of mutual adaptation across space and time’ that links the poetry to the world’s readers and cultures.”—Ezra Greenspan, Edmund and Louise Kahn Chair in Humanities, Southern Methodist University

Great News!

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has been offered a $500,000 "We the People" NEH challenge grant to support the building of a permanent endowment for the Walt Whitman Archive. The grant carries a 3 to 1 matching requirement, and thus we need to raise $1.5 million dollars in order to receive the NEH funds.

To raise $1.5 million dollars is a huge task but it is for a remarkably important cause: to make freely available all of the writings of the great poet of democracy.

Big accomplishments are achieved through a series of small steps. Please add your name to the list of supporters of the Whitman Archive. Visit www.whitmanarchive.org to make your gift.
