Our cover image, “Liminal Icon LXXXI” (1989), a work in acrylic on board, 13” × 11”, is by Hans Breder, who directs the courses in Multimedia and Video Art for the MFA Program in Art at The University of Iowa. Originally from Germany, Professor Breder’s works are in the collections of the Museum of Modern Art and the Whitney Museum of American Art in New York City. His work was represented in the Whitney Biennial Exhibitions of 1987 and 1989, and in a group exhibition of contemporary American art, “Painting Beyond the Death of Painting,” in Moscow, 1989.

The Iowa Review is indexed in Abstracts of English Studies, American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies, American Humanities Index, Annual Index to Poetry in Periodicals, Bibliography of English Language and Literature, Index of American Periodical Verse, Index to Book Reviews in the Humanities, and Modern Language Association Bibliography.
