Our cover images, front and back, are “Liminal Icon XCIX and CV” (1989). These are works in acrylic on board, 10” x 9” in both cases, by Hans Breder, who directs the courses in Multimedia and Video Art for the MFA Program in Art at The University of Iowa. Professor Breder, who is originally from Germany, has work in the collections of the Museum of Modern Art and the Whitney Museum of American Art in New York City. His work was also represented in the Whitney Biennial Exhibitions of 1987 and 1989, and in a group exhibition of contemporary American art, “Painting Beyond the Death of Painting,” in Moscow, 1989.

The Iowa Review is indexed in Abstracts of English Studies, American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies, American Humanities Index, Annual Index to Poetry in Periodicals, Bibliography of English Language and Literature, Index of American Periodical Verse, Index to Book Reviews in the Humanities, and Modern Language Association Bibliography.

Send subscriptions, manuscripts (with SASE), and any inquiries to The Iowa Review, 308 EPB, The University of Iowa, Iowa City, IA 52242. We welcome manuscripts from September through April.

THE TIM McGINNIS AWARD

We are pleased to announce that the first winners of the Tim McGinnis Award are M. R. Axelrod, for "PIZD'sSH: Nikolai Gogol, Abner, Doubleday, and the Russian Origins of Baseball, and Don Colburn, for "In the Workshop after I Read My Poem." They will share the award of $500, and we thank them for the lighter touch they have brought to our pages. This award, first announced a year ago, is made possible by the generous contributions of Mr. McGinnis's family and friends.
