My Land

Arpine Konyalian Grenier

Follow this and additional works at: https://ir.uiowa.edu/iowareview
Part of the Creative Writing Commons

Recommended Citation
Available at: https://doi.org/10.17077/0021-065X.4823

This Contents is brought to you for free and open access by Iowa Research Online. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Iowa Review by an authorized administrator of Iowa Research Online. For more information, please contact lib-ir@uiowa.edu.
My Land

camouflaged in minted blue this curl is my land burning away each day
without changing ordinates a bas-relief
having chosen to be grounded for the kill the ethmoid stuffed and sold to the stars

I stretch the dictionary for blue daily the sun a restricted classic starving in the nude over nothing not needed all the moon trash embedded in ellipses and stamps for the licking

where to go from here
may be a notebook pattern for arbitrary fruit
from gods with no faces a red itch that will not bleed people who do time with gruel products and ashes
second hand

savior with hairy arms leading me to a paper bag victory for hooved animals
a left handed partner rolling milk and money and I
with a tattered look inherited from the busy my gut in-between the boredom of words
a sin
I don't sing
I sin
when spokes unlock the night's flirting the ocean comfort of his braids I insipidly exhale the revolution round my neck my neck to the null
a child
playing with itself
with no currency.

SISTER SISTER

I am dizzy dirty a fool for a fan's offering so no blood is shed
no nails

a word is a thing is ether for fingertips and corners of mouth moistened lightly that's all

light hangs its rules around me still gingerly flattened mother linked and tampered wood the operation

a forest's moan rocketed clumsy into the life of its own star_ yell me a script
for the awakening

for the day I'll visit my grandmothers the ones that witched and moaned cobalt blue cones of glass in the rose garden.

178