1997

Sister Sister

Arpine Konyalian Grenier

Follow this and additional works at: https://ir.uiowa.edu/iowareview Part of the Creative Writing Commons

Recommended Citation
Available at: https://doi.org/10.17077/0021-065X.4824

This Contents is brought to you for free and open access by Iowa Research Online. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Iowa Review by an authorized administrator of Iowa Research Online. For more information, please contact lib-ir@uiowa.edu.
I don't sing
I sin
when spokes unlock the night's flirting the ocean comfort of his braids I insipidly exhale the revolution round my neck my neck to the null a child playing with itself with no currency.

SISTER SISTER

I am dizzy dirty a fool for a fan's offering so no blood is shed no nails

a word is a thing is ether for fingertips and corners of mouth moistened lightly that's all light hangs its rules around me still gingerly flattened mother linked and tampered wood the operation

a forest's moan rocketed clumsy into the life of its own star_ yell me a script for the awakening for the day I'll visit my grandmothers the ones that witched and moaned cobalt blue cones of glass in the rose garden.

178