Geneva, New York, Agricultural Experiment Station. He came to Ames in 1905 as horticulturist of the Iowa Agricultural Experiment Station, and professor of horticulture, and a little later was made vice-dean of agriculture. At the time of his death he was president of the Iowa State Horticultural Society. He was the author of many publications, the most important being “Apples of New York.” He was an excellent teacher, a fine experimenter, and left his impress for good on the student body and on the horticulturists of Iowa.—L. H. Pammel.

Joseph Cooper Locklin was born at Brandon, Wisconsin, November 3, 1853, and died at Aurelia, Cherokee County, Iowa, October 16, 1922. He was educated in common school, assumed the vocation of teacher, removed to Cherokee County, Iowa, in 1876, and in 1878 began farming. He followed this until 1893 when he removed to Aurelia and engaged in the grain business in which he remained ten years. In 1905 he entered the real estate, loan, and insurance business. For forty years he was secretary of the Maple Valley Mutual Insurance Association. In 1900 he was a lay delegate to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was a trustee of Morningside College for several years and was secretary and treasurer of the endowment fund. In 1887 he was elected representative and served in the Twenty-second General Assembly. He was again elected in 1918 and re-elected in 1920, serving in the Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth general assemblies. He was mayor of Aurelia four years and a member of the school board twenty-five years.

Nathan Marsh Pusey was born in Washington County, Pennsylvania, June 21, 1841, and died at Council Bluffs, Iowa, October 9, 1922. In 1849 the family removed to Baltimore, Maryland, where he was educated in a private school. He studied law under Cochran & Stockbridge of Baltimore, was admitted to the bar in Maryland in 1864, and practiced in Baltimore until 1877. He then removed to Council Bluffs and entered the practice there. In 1882 he formed a partnership with Colonel W. P. Sapp, as Sapp & Pusey, which continued until Colonel Sapp’s death in 1892, after which he practiced alone. For a period of some twenty years he was considered one of the ablest lawyers of western Iowa. In 1895 he was elected senator and served in the Twenty-sixth, Twenty-sixth Extra, and Twenty-seventh general assemblies.
