a journal for the intermingling of literary, cultural and theoretical scholarship symplokē is a comparative theory and literature journal. Our aim is to provide an arena for critical exchange between established and emerging voices in the field. We support new and developing notions of comparative literature, and are committed to interdisciplinary studies, intellectual pluralism, and open discussion. We are particularly interested in scholarship on the interrelations among philosophy, literature, culture, criticism and intellectual history, though will consider articles on any aspect of the intermingling of discourses and disciplines.

EDITORS ON POETRY
REVISED & EXPANDED EDITION

Compiled by Stephen Corey & Warren Slesinger

Written especially for this collection by the editors of twenty important literary periodicals, each of the essays combines practical information with insightful commentary on the nature of writing and editing, and contains an exemplary poem by a contemporary poet.

Of interest to those who consider sending out their poems for publication as well as students, teachers, and poets in search of a reliable source of information for creative writing courses.

A new contest from The Iowa Review

POETRY, FICTION, & NONFICTION

$1000 TO EACH WINNER
Plus publication in our December 2003 issue

COMPLETE GUIDELINES
1. Submit up to 25 pages of prose or 10 pages of poetry (whether one poem or several). Multiple submissions are fine assuming you advise us of acceptance elsewhere. All submission will be considered for publication in 33/3 or a later issue.
2. Put no names on your manuscripts, but provide a cover page with your name, address, email address and/or telephone number, and the title of each work.
3. Label the outside of your envelope as a contest entry with genre, for example: "Contest: Fiction."
4. Enclose a $15 ENTRY FEE (checks made payable to The Iowa Review).
5. Up to three entries may be offered in each category by adding $10 for a second submission and $5 for a third.
7. Submit your entry to The Iowa Review, 308 EPB, Iowa City, Iowa 52242-1408.
8. Enclose a #10 SASE envelope for an announcement of contest results and final word on your work. Enclose a SASE postcard if you also wish confirmation of our receipt of your entry.
9. NO ELECTRONIC SUBMISSIONS.
