OUR COVER features the work of Joseph Patrick, professor emeritus of painting, who has, for many years, drawn portraits of his students. “Teaching life drawing,” he says, “has sometimes been like dreaming, filled with the known as well as the unexpected.”
The Iowa Review is a literary magazine published three times annually by the Department of English and the Graduate College of The University of Iowa.

Send submissions and inquiries to 308 EPB, The University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa 52242-1408. Subscriptions are $20 for one year, $38 for two years, and $55 for three years. Call our order department at (800) 235-2665 to charge your subscription to VISA or MasterCard, or send a check to the address above.

Unsolicited manuscripts are welcome during the fall semester—September, October, and November. Unsolicited work that arrives at any other time will be returned unread. Work without an SASE will be discarded. We do not consider e-mail submissions. Entries for The Iowa Award, given in fiction, poetry, and literary nonfiction, should arrive during January. Please look for our annual announcements.
