ON OUR COVER: Excerpt of a poster titled “Iowa: Many Rivers Run Through It,” created by Rex Heer at the Iowa State University Instructional Technology Center to celebrate the 1997 Year of Water in Iowa, a project of the Leopold Center for Sustainable Agriculture, the ISU College of Agriculture, and the ISU Extension. The full poster is available at www.extension.iastate.edu/store.
The Iowa Review is a literary magazine published three times annually by the Department of English and the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at The University of Iowa.

The Iowa Review is indexed in Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature, Humanities International Complete, Index of American Periodical Verse, and MLA International Bibliography.

Send submissions and inquiries to 308 EPB, The University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa 52242-1408. Subscriptions are $25 for one year, $45 for two years, and $60 for three years. Call our order department at (800) 235-2665 to charge your subscription to VISA or MasterCard, or send a check to the address above.

Unsolicited manuscripts are welcome during the fall semester—September, October, and November. Unsolicited work that arrives at any other time will be returned unread. Work without an SASE will be discarded. We do not consider e-mail submissions. Entries for The Iowa Review Award should arrive during January. Please look for our annual announcements.
