those who have made a success in the field of finance. Bankers have earned the right to nationwide public confidence. During depression, war, and inflation, they quietly went about their business; and they have emerged with stronger banks than ever before.—W. Harold Brenton, of Iowa, Retiring President of American Bankers Association, 1953.

An Indian Idea

Whether the white man has the last word in how the world should be run may well be questioned by the Indians from whom he has taken over. A Sedan, Kansas, newspaper says a farm journal offered a $100 prize for the best 100 word comment on a deserted farm house in a gullied field. An Indian, so the story goes, won with the following:

Whence Freedom Springs

The test after all, is not whether a certain law is popular, but whether the law is based upon fundamental justice, fundamental decency and righteousness, fundamental morality and goodness. What we need is not law enforcement, but law observance. In a modern society there is no real freedom from law. There is only freedom in law.—Peter Marshall.
